GENERAL INFORMATION

THE ILLINOIS STATE NORMAL UNIVERSITY, founded in 1857, is located at Normal, two miles north of Bloomington. It is the oldest state institution for the training of teachers in the Mississippi Valley, and the ninth to be established in the United States.

The grounds include 56 acres besides a school farm of 90 acres.

There ar five major bildings besides a dormitory for women, a modern heating plant, a plant house, and farm bildings.

Its equipment is modern and ample. In the departments of biology, geografy and agriculture, as wel as in its training department, its facilities ar not surpast in any institution of its class.

Its library contains 41,000 volumes and 28,700 pamflets.

Its faculty includes seventy-five teachers.

Its student body during the year ending June 1, 1922, has included 747 normal school and teachers college students during the regular terms, 2612 summer school students, 240 students in correspondence courses, 231 students in the high school, 547 in the elementary school, and 397 in the school at the Soldiers' Orphans' Home. The ordinary annual income is $267,595.

It provides fourteen distinct curriculums for high-school graduates to meet the varying needs of students preparing to teach at different levels of the public school system, as wel as of special teachers of art and design, music, home economics, manual training, agriculture, commercial branches, and physical education. There are other curriculums for country-school teachers and students of limited preparation.

LOCATION

The town of Normal, as its name suggests, has grown up around the Normal University. It has attracted a body of residents who value educational advantages and giv to the community high intellectual, moral, and civic standards.

The situation is helthful, the site high and wel draind. The town is provided with excellent water, sewers, paved streets, gas, and electric lights. Commodious homes and boarding houses for 800 students stand within easy walking distance of the school. An electric railway with cars every ten minutes connects Normal with Bloomington. Twelv railroad lines radiating from Bloomington make it one of the most accessible cities in Illinois.

HOW TO REACH NORMAL

The Illinois Central and the Chicago & Alton are the only railroads in Normal. Whenever it is possible, students on other lines should buy their tickets and check their baggage thru to Normal. Students coming to Bloomington on the Big Four or the Lake Erie & Western ar advized to check their baggage to the Chicago & Alton Junction in Bloomington; they may then leave the train at this station and recheck their baggage to Normal at a cost of ten cents, the price of a ticket to Normal.

Students coming to Bloomington on the limited trains of the Chicago & Alton, the Big Four, the Lake Erie & Western, or the Interurban lines of the Illinois Traction System may reach Normal by street cars. These run from all railroad stations to the Court House square, whence a transfer may be taken to the Normal-South Main or Fell Avenue cars, which run to the Normal University.

The ordinary fee for delivering baggage from Normal station is fifty cents; from Bloomington one dollar. Baggage should bear a card with the owner's name and address.

STUDENT ORGANIZATIONS

Literary Societies.—There ar five literary societies connected with the school—the Philadelphian, the Wrightonian and three junior societies in the University High School. These afford practis in oratory, debate, dramatics, and parliamentary usage. The societies hav wel furnisht rooms set aside for their use.

Christian Organization.—Young Women students receiv a harty welcome to the Young Women's Christian Association of the Normal University. This organization endevors to promote the social and spiritual welfare of the students. It maintains a paid secretary.

Oratorical Association.—The purpose of this association is the cultivation of oratory, extempore speaking, declamation, and debate. The winners of the annual contest in oratory and declamation receiv the Richard Edwards medals, establisht in honor of the second president of the institution. The successful contestants in oratory, reading, and extempore speaking represent this institution in the contest held in March of each year under the direction of the State Leag of Normal Schools.

The Athletic Association has general control of students' athletics in conjunction with the director of the gymnasium.

The Lecture Association provides a course of high-class lectures and concerts at low cost.

Musical Organizations.—The University Choral Club meets twice each week at 6:15. The club gives three concerts each year, singing selections from standard operas, oratorios, and cantatas.

Glee Clubs.—Four ar organized, two for men, two for women.

The Orchestra gives students who play upon an instrument an opportunity for practis in concerted playing.

The Band numbering about twenty-five members receivs daily instruction upon band and orchestral instruments.

The Dramatic Club (The Jesters) presents one or more plays each year.

The Latin Club discusses at its meeting the civilization and institutions of Ancient Rome.

The Science Club holds bi-weekly meetings, at which papers ar red dealing with scientific questions.

The Nature Study Club discusses ways and means of extending and popularizing the nature-study movement.

The Hieronymus Collegiate Chapter of the American Country Life Association discusses problems of community life and the means and methods of promoting better communities.

The Kindergarten Club meets alternate weeks to dicuss the principles, the practis, and the problems of the Kindergarten and plans for extending its usefulness.

The Varsity Club is an organization of the young men to promote a helthy social and intellectual life within the institution.

The Art Club is an organization of students especially interested in the professional aspects of art study.

The Hopkins Agricultural Club has been recently organized to study the Illinois System of Permanent Soil Fertility and to discuss other questions of interest in agricultural communities.

The Student Council consists of one representativ from each class and student organization. Its function is to discuss plans for improving the conditions and character of student life and to make recommendations to the Faculty.

STUDENT PUBLICATIONS

The Vidette is an 8-page weekly, fild with local news, alumni notes, and practical and interesting matter on school topics contributed by faculty and students. It is under the management of the Vidette Board, elected by the students of the various classes.

The Index, publisht annually by the senior class, contains detaild information in regard to the various student organizations.

The Alumni Quarterly is a 32-page magazine whose purpose is to keep alumni in touch with the life of the institution.

ORGANIZATION

The Illinois State Normal University comprizes four schools:

The Normal School,

The Teachers College,

The Elementary Training School,

The University High School.

The Normal School is intended to prepare teachers for graded elementary schools, rural schools, and village schools. It provides for high-school graduates curriculums two years in length for primary teachers, for upper-grade teachers, for rural-school teachers, and for special teachers of art, manual training, household science, household art, agriculture, commercial branches, physical education, public school music, and the kindergarten. A special curriculum is provided to prepare country-school teachers, and a preparatory program for mature students who wish to make up deficiencies in high-school work.

The Teachers College is intended to educate high-school teachers, supervisors, principals, and superintendents whose duties require a more extended preparation than the normal-school course. It provides full four-year curriculums beyond the high school, leading to the professional degree, Bachelor of Education.

The Elementary Training School consists of a kindergarten and eight grades. It is intended to serv as a model school for observation and training for students of the Normal School and Teachers College. The school of the Soldiers' Orphans' Home with 400 pupils affords further facilities for training.

The University High School is provided primarily for holders of township scholarships who ar too young to enter the Normal School, or who do not intend to prepare for teaching. Additional students ar admitted on payment of tuition. It is a school of observation and training for students in the Teachers College. The attendance is limited to 230.

It is a recognized fully accredited four-year high school and may receive students from county non-high-school districts.

ENROLMENT

As soon as persons decide to enter the Normal University as students, they should, if time permits, write to the president for an admission blank. Upon this should be enterd the high-school record of the student and such other data as ar required. This application for admission should then be maild to the Normal University, or it may be brought to Normal by the student when he comes to register. Students who hav secured advanst standing in other higher institutions may settle by correspondence the classification that may be granted them.

The first day of the fall term is devoted to the enrolment of new students, and to the examination of students for advanst standing. New students should be present in the morning to present their credentials, to register in the offis, to pay their term fees, to consult with the appropriate committee in regard to their program of studies, to enrol with the director of the gymnasium, to consult with teachers in regard to their studies, to purchase their textbooks and to get their assignments. In all other terms students ar expected to enrol on the Saturday preceding the beginning of the term.

Students upon arriving in Normal ar advized to come directly to the offis of the president.

CONDITIONS OF ADMISSION TO THE NORMAL SCHOOL

Students ar admitted to the Normal School upon presentation of the following evidences of scholarship:

- 1. A high-school diploma.
- 2. A teacher's certificate.
- 3. A certificate of attendance at another state normal school.
- 4. A township scholarship under the Lindly Act. This act provides for an annual examination in each township adapted to graduates of the eighth grade. Successful candidates ar awarded scholarships good for four years at any state normal school in Illinois.
- 5. A county diploma or certificate of graduation from the eighth grade.
- 6. A statement from proper school authorities showing that one or more years of high-school work has been completed.

Each student who has done any high-school work should bring a copy of his record signd by the principal.

Persons not provided with the foregoing credentials may arrange for admission by correspondence with the president.

To enter the normal school or Teachers college students must be at least sixteen years of age. Students not of the required age ar assigned to the elementary school or high-school until they reach the maturity desired.

In the summer terms no student is admitted unless he is eighteen years of age or has alredy completed three years of high-school work.

To obtain free tuition, students who ar not holders of township scholarships ar required to sign a declaration of their intention to devote themselves to teaching in the public schools of Illinois for as long a period as they attend the Normal School. Illinois ex-servis men ar excused from all fees.

Students may enter at any time, provided they ar competent to take up the work then in progress. It is best to enter at the beginning of a term. In all but the special programs classes ar provided each term for students beginning a course of study.

CREDIT FOR WORK IN OTHER INSTITUTIONS

For all work done in other state normal schools and in the University of Illinois, credit is given so far as such work is equivalent to our own courses. Credit for work done in other higher institutions is granted upon adequate proof that such work is a satisfactory substitute for courses offered here. No student is expected to mark time by repeating work wel done elsewhere.

SPECIAL STUDENTS

Teachers of maturity and experience may be admitted as special students, and ar permitted to take up any work for which they ar prepared. They may not, however, be permitted to teach in the training school until they hav had preliminary courses in psychology and education.

EXAMINATIONS FOR ADVANST STANDING

To students pursuing any of the curriculums outlined on pages 27-47 an opportunity is given to pass by examination some studies in the program without taking the same in class. Arrangements for a suitable date may be made with the instructor.

ACCREDITED HIGH SCHOOLS

Graduates of high schools with four-year courses recognized by the State Department of Education ar admitted to the Teachers College, or to any of the two-year curriculums (A to J) in the Normal School, or to curriculum N, provided that fifteen units of entrance credit that they offer include the following:

Algebra	1	unit
Geometry		unit
Physics	1	unit
*Chemistry
Zoölogy	$\frac{1}{2}$	unit
Botany	$\frac{1}{2}$	unit
Physiografy	$\frac{1}{2}$	unit
Civil Government	$\frac{1}{2}$	unit
History	$1\frac{1}{2}$	units
Literature and English Composition	3	units
Totai	10	units

A year of general science may be substituted for two half-units of science in the foregoing list.

The remaining five units may be composed of any subjects that the high school accepts to meet its graduating requirement.

The work above stated is the minimum in each branch. It is expected that each student shall hav done more work in some of the subjects.

Graduates of recognized high schools who hav not completed all the work listed above may take two of the omitted half-units in the regular classes in these subjects (see Program P, p. 46) as substitutes for two stard subjects in their regular program. If the student is deficient in more than two half-units of the list, he shall add these subjects to the requirements of his regular program. Such added courses may be completed in summer terms.

If high school graduates admitted to the Normal University ar not able to write wel with ease and speed, or read distinctly with good expression, or use the dictionary intelligently, or pass the examination in spelling, extra courses in reading, penmanship, spelling and dictionary work must be taken by them during their first year.

A unit is the amount of work done in a preparatory subject in 180 recitation periods of forty minutes each, or the equivalent in laboratory or other practis.

*Chemistry is not required for admission to any of the special curriculums

C-J. *Students following curriculum B ar excused from this entrance requirement if they elect physical science in their second year.

EXPENSES

Tuition is free to all qualified students of the required age who ar preparing to teach in the schools of Illinois. A registration fee of two dollars per term is charged all students excepting those holding township scholarships under the provision of the Lindly act. Ex-servis men ar exempt from tuition and registration fees. For each summer term of six weeks the fee is one dollar. Students from other states than Illinois and students not preparing to teach ar charged an additional tuition fee of ten dollars per term for long terms. If within five years such student from another state teaches an equivalent time in Illinois, the tuition is refunded. An incidental fee of two dollars per term is charged to maintain certain student organizations.

Good furnisht rooms, large enuf for two persons, rent at from $3.00 to $5.00 per week. Table board in private families may be had at $5.00 to $7.00 per week. An excellent cafeteria and two restaurants assist in boarding students. Good rooms and boarding places are abundant. Arrangements can be made better after arriving in Normal than by letter.

Students not living at home ar required to room at approved houses. A list of approved rooming houses is kept at the offis of the Dean of Women. A written contract is required strictly defining the terms on which rooms ar rented.

Fell Hall affords rooms for 83 young women and boarding accommodations for twice that number. Students desiring rooms should address the Hed of Fell Hall for a floor plan and a statement of rules governing the renting of rooms. The cost of board and room in Fell Hall averages $7.50 per week.

Textbooks and ordinary stationary may be bought at the school-book store at net wholesale cost; or books may be rented at twenty per cent of their ordinary retail price. Students ar advised to own and keep the textbooks in advanst courses.

AID TO STUDENTS

To assist worthy students in completing their course of study the Alumni and Faculty hav created a Students' Loan Fund, from which students in their senior year may borrow at a low rate of interest a sum not to excede one hundred fifty dollars.

Provision is made upon the Normal University farm for housing and boarding a small group of students of agriculture. These wil be afforded regular employment a few hours each day at fair wages. Application may be made by mail.

Many students secure employment which enables them to meet their expenses. For such employment address Miss Lillian Barton, Dean of Women. Students should consult her before entering into any agreement with an employer.

TEACHERS' BUREAU

The Illinois State Normal University maintains a teachers' bureau, whose purposes ar to secure for its students, free of cost, suitable positions, and to aid school officers in selecting efficient teachers. Students, as a rule, do not expect employment without a personal visit; it is hoped that the expense of such visit may be avoided unless there is a reasonable prospect of employment.

GRADUATION

Candidates for graduation shall, at the beginning of the year in September, file with the Dean the program of studies they desire to follow during the scnior year. This program must accord with the general daily programs for the various terms and the rules stated on pages 25-26. If the student desires to make substitutions not provided for by the general rules his request must be approved by the proper committee of the faculty.

Credits for graduation may be transferd from other recognized institutions; if the last year's work has been done elsewhere, the student shal not receiv his diploma unless he returns here and makes at least four major credits or their equivalent.

No person may receive the diploma of this institution unless he has completed a full year (12 credits) of resident work.

Each candidate for a degree shall write an acceptable thesis upon some educational theme. The subject shall be reported to the hed of the proper department at the opening of the Fall term. The thesis shall be completed and handed in six weeks before graduation. For this thesis a full credit is given, or it may be written as part of the work in the course in Advanst Exposition.

Students who lack no more than four credits of completing the course of study may participate in the Commencement functions in June and receiv their diplomas upon the completion of their work in the ensuing summer terms.

Candidates for graduation in June should see that all conditions and deficiencies ar removed by the end of the eighth week of the Spring term.

THE SUMMER SESSION

The Normal School provides two summer terms of six weeks each for activ teachers and for students who wish to continue their studies during the summer. The program consists chiefly of the regular courses in the various subjects. The daily program is so arranged that the student recites twice per day in the same subject, thus completing a regular twelv-week course in six weeks. All grades of the training school ar in session during the first summer term affording model lessons for observation and discussion and opportunity for practis teaching; but such practis teaching may be done only after prerequisit work in education has been accomplisht. Especial prominence is given to music, drawing, construction work, manual training, and the household arts, to the natural sciences, to the common branches as outlined in the Illinois State Course of Study, and to the special courses required in the examination for state teachers' certificates. Credit is given for all satisfactory work and recorded on the books of the institution. A special summer-school announcement is issued in March.

Many of the courses in the Senior College wil be arranged in a threeyear cycle and taught in the summer terms thus enabling a student to complete two units of work by attending the same term for three consecutiv terms.

Courses in Home Economics and Agriculture as required by the Smith-Hughes Act ar offerd in the summer terms.

A similar mid-spring term wil begin April 30, 1923, providing about twenty-five new classes. See page 60.

COURSES OF STUDY

The Normal School requires for most of its courses the degree of maturity and scholarship attaind by graduates of our best high schools with four-year courses of study. Accordingly the standard curriculums of the Normal University ar pland for students of such preparation. Besides the standard courses others ar regularly taught to meet the needs of students of limited high-school preparation. In the standard two-year curriculums, twenty-four credits of proper rank ar required for graduation. By a credit is ment the amount of work done in a term of twelv weeks in a subject requiring daily preparation by a typical student carrying four studies and reciting five times a week in each. To complete the standard two-year curriculums the attendance required of the typical student is six regular terms of twelv weeks. For the four-year teachers college curriculums one hundred forty-four weeks ar required.

It is expected that the student wil devote forty-five clock hours per week to study and recitation.

RANK OF CREDITS

Credits ar of four ranks according to the character of the courses for which they ar given. The 305 courses offerd ar divided into four classes with a small remaining unclassified group.

The unclassified courses ar elementary courses in music, physical training, phonics, writing, spelling and composition, which may be counted at full value in any curriculum in which they ar required.

They ar designated by the first nine numerals.

Courses of Class 1 ar of Junior high-school rank and may be taken by any student admitted to the normal school. They ar of full credit value only in curriculums O and P, as described below.

They ar designated by the numerals 11—19.

Courses of Class 2 ar of Senior high-school rank and may be taken by students who hav had two-years of high-school work, or by students with one year of such work provided they hav shown proficiency in the subject. They ar counted at full credit value in curriculums O and P, and at one-half of a credit if substituted for courses in Class 3.

They ar designated by the numerals 21-29.

Courses of Class 3 ar of Junior College rank and may be taken by high-school graduates and other students of demonstrated equivalent preparation, or by students of three-years high-school preparation who hav shown special proficiency in the subject. These courses count at full credit value in all curriculums except the Senior College, and at two-thirds credit when substituted for courses in Class 4.

They are designated by the numerals 31-39.

Courses of Class 4 ar of Senior College rank and may be taken by students in the Senior College or by second-year students in curriculums A—N, who hav shown special proficiency in the subject. They ar allowd full credit in all curriculums.

They ar designated by the numerals 41—49.

CURRICULUMS

The regular curriculums of study ar:

A. A two-year curriculum (24 credits) to prepare teachers of upper grades.

B. A two-year curriculum for teachers of lower grades.

C. A two-year kindergarten-primary curriculum for teachers of the kindergarten and of the first two primary grades.

D to J. Two-year curriculums to prepare special teachers of Music, Manual Training, Art and Design, Physical Education, Household Art, Household Science, Agriculture, and Commercial branches. There ar also three-year curriculums combining Music and Art, Household Science and Household Art.

H4. A four-year curriculum in Home Economics to meet the requirements of the Smith-Hughes Act.

K. A four-year Teachers College curriculum to prepare high-school teachers.

L. A four-year Teachers College curriculum to prepare supervisors and principals of elementary schools.

M. A four-year Teachers College curriculum for superintendents and principals.

N. A two-year curriculum for high-school graduates who wish to teach superior country schools.

Graduates of four-year high schools who hav the specific preparation set forth on page 14 and other students of equal preparation ar admitted to the foregoing curriculums without concition.

Mature students whose preparation falls below the equivalent of four years of high-school work and who wish to enter upon any of the foregoing curriculums may arrange with the President or Dean to take from the preparatory program (program P on p. 49) such courses as ar needed to complete the entrance requirements. All such students must, before graduation, be credited with fifteen units of entrance credits, in addition to the regular credits of the curriculum selected.

O. A three-year curriculum for graduates of the eighth grade to prepare them for teaching country-schools.

Students with high-school credits ar given half credit for the same on this curriculum.

Students who complete two years of this curriculum ar recommended for provisional teachers' certificates under the certificating law.

Students who hav completed 0 must take, before graduating, enuf additional work to make a total of fifteen units of entrance credit and twenty-four term-credits of normal-school work.

Students who hav completed O and wish to secure the diploma from any of the curriculums A to K, should arrange with the President or Dean for the additional work to be taken from Program P.

P. A preparatory program, three years or less in length, to enable mature students to supply the deficiencies in their high-school prepara tion.

Entrance credits may be granted holders of teachers certificates in accordance with the rules shown on page 48.

TEACHERS' CERTIFICATES

It is the duty of the State Normal University to prepare every kind of teacher required for the public schools of Illinois.

The needs of the schools ar set forth in the law of 1913 (as amended in 1919 and 1921), governing Teachers' Certificates. These certificates may be issued to candidates who hav past the examinations prescribed by the State Examining Board, or to those who hav done a required amount of work in "recognized" normal schools or other higher institutions.

The Normal University provides the specific courses required for the various kinds of certificates.

Diplomas from curriculums A to N (two years work) entitle the holder to receiv a first-grade county elementary certificate good for three years and renewable indefinitly. This certificate is good for teaching two years of high-school work if endorst by the county superinten dents.

Students who hav completed the work of the first year in any of these curriculums may receiv the second-grade county elementary certificate at the option of the county superintendent of schools.

Students completing two years work in O may receiv a provisional county elementary certificate good for one year under the same condition.

The six-week courses required for renewal of these certificates ar offerd in the mid-spring term and the summer terms.

The Kindergarten-Primary certificate, good for two years and renewable indefinitly, may be obtaind by completing curriculum C.

Special certificates, good for two years and renewable indefinitly, may be obtained after completing curriculums D to J in Music, Art, Manual Training, Domestic Science, Domestic Art, Agriculture, Commercial branches, and Physical Education, such certificates may be obtained for particular high-school subjects.

County high-school certificates, good for three years and renewable indefinitly, may be obtaind after completing the Teachers College curriculums K or H, providing courses be chosen in accordance with the requirements of the Examining Board.

Students who hav completed two years' work in the normal school or teachers college may be admitted to the examination for this certificate.

County supervisors' certificates may be obtained only by examination in English, educational psychology, the history of education, and school administration. The Normal University offers extended and thoro courses in these subjects, as well as the two years of preliminary work required.

State elementary certificates and state high-school certificates ar issued to teachers of due preparation and long experience in teaching who pass an examination in English, educational psychology, and principles and methods of teaching. The State Normal University offers adequate courses in these subjects in both the regular and summer terms.

For the State Supervisors' certificate is required graduation from a normal school and an examination in English, educational psychology, sociology, the history of education, and school management, administration, and supervizion.

Holders of first-grade elementary certificates who hav taught five years may convert the same into state life certificates by taking an additional year of work in a state normal school.

RULES RELATING TO STUDIES AND CONDUCT

- 1. Every new student is expected at the beginning to choose one of the various curriculums and to follow this curriculum as closely as is practicable except where electiv substitutes ar specifically allowd.
- 2. Variations from the regular program chosen ar permitted to special students, and to others if there be special need of such change. All individual programs involving substitutions must be approved by the President or the Dean.
- 3. Students who hav become irregular in their programs or who contemplate taking elective should study carefully the daily programs on pages 56-60. All irregular programs should be approved by one of the faculty committee on student programs (page 14).
- 4. Students should study carefully the descriptions of courses and note the prerequisits. They should arrange to take these prerequisits at the proper time.
- 5. No substitution may be allowd for the common branches unless the student gives satisfactory evidence of proficiency in such branches. In doubtful cases an examination may be required.
- 6. Elective may be chosen from any of the programs on pp. 27-47 provided the student is qualified to pursue the subject with profit. This permission may be granted by the President or Dean.
- 7. The electivs allowd include five years' work in Latin, three years' work in French or Spanish, and courses in method for students who hav alredy attaind considerable proficiency in these languages. For the first year's work in Latin one credit is allowd, for the second year two credits, for all work beyond the second year and for the courses in method full credit.
- 8. Full credit is allowd for French or Spanish in the Teachers College curriculum providing a full years' work or more is completed. If a year's work has been done before coming to Normal, each term's work in the normal school is allowd full credit.
- 9. No electiv credit is allowd in Curriculums A-K for a single term in cooking or sewing; for two terms one credit is given; for three terms three credits.
- 10. No credit is allowed for less than one hundred twenty hours of bench work.
- 11. All classes recite daily in the regular terms. In the mid-spring and summer terms of six weeks two recitations per day ar held in most subjects, thus enabling the student to complete the regular twelv-week courses in thirty school days.
- 12. Four hours per week of gymnasium practis is required of all first-year students. Students who cannot profitably take this work because of age or physical disability may substitute electivs.
 - 13. Ten library lessons ar given each term to entering students.
- 14. Thirty minutes per day ar devoted at General Assembly to the consideration of topics of interest to prospectiv teachers. All members of the school ar expected to attend. On Tuesdays the school at this hour is divided into small sections for practis in platform speaking. All students not teaching at this hour ar required to participate in this work.

- 15. Every student is expected to take not more than four major subjects (or their equivalent), nor less than three, not counting physical training. Students whose standing in all subjects is above 80 may take a hevier program, with the approval of the Dean. Students who work for their board ar not permitted to take a full schedule.
- 16. If a student fails to keep pace with his class in any study he may be transferd to a lower section in such study or be required to drop the study.
- 17. If a student fails to carry a study after continuing thru half the term he is required to repeat the study at the earliest opportunity.
- 18. If a student fails to complete a course in which his work is of good quality, he should complete such course in the next term in which he is in attendance and the course offerd. Otherwise the entire course is to be repeated at the earliest opportunity.
- 19. A student who fails in any term to make a passing grade in two major studies, or their equivalent, is placed upon probation for the succeding term, and in case he fails to carry two majors in the succeding term, he shall not be permitted to continue his studies until one year has elapst. This rule may be suspended in the case of any student by a majority vote of the faculty.
- 20. Other students may be placed on probation by the faculty or by the Committee on Disciplin. Such probation shall not excede one term. Students on probation may not take part in any public contest or exhibition—athletic, musical, dramatic, or oratorical.

MISCELLANEOUS

- 21. Term fees and tuition ar to be paid the first day of the term. If the student leaves school within two weeks (one week in summer), fees ar refunded. If a student paying tuition leaves school during the first half of the term, half of the tuition is refunded.
- 22. Students ar enrold in their classes upon presentation of their term-fee or tuition receipt, or evidence that they hold a township scholarship.
- 23. Grades for scholarships indicate as follow: Above 90, distinquisht proficiency; 86-90, excellent; 81-85, good; 76-80, average; 70-75, fair work below the average; below 70 indicates poor work and the student must repeat the course. The median is 80.
- 24. Students ar expected, whenever it is possible, to enter school at the beginning of the term and remain to the close, to attend their classes regularly, and to conform to the various requirements that hav been found necessary to the orderly and successful working of the institution and to the welfare of its students.
- 25. Students who return late from vacation shal forfit two points of their term standing in each subject for each day's delay in entering the class, unless it is attested by a physician's certificate that the delay in return was due to the illness of the student or to serious illness in the family requiring his presence.

This rule may be suspended in any particular case by a vote of the faculty.

26. Any student who shall withdraw before the end of the term unless excused by the President or Dean shall forfit his credits in the various su'ects taken.

Two teaching credits may be made in the same term at the Soldiers Orphans Home.

Students who pass the examination in phonics and dictionary work spend an entire term upon reading. Examinations ar offerd at the beginning and at the middle of each term.

At the middle and at the end of the fall term examinations ar offerd in phonics, dictionary work, and spelling. Students who pass in phonics wil take Reading 31 during the entire term.

Students whose teaching credit is 85 per cent or above in the first two terms of teaching may substitute the Principles of Education for the third term.

To meet more fully and successfully the demands made upon graduates from this curriculum it is recommended that each student take in a summer term, History 32 and Public Speaking, or two other courses selected with the approval of the President or Dean. These additional credits may be counted as senior college credits.

The demand for wel-prepared teachers for upper grades so far excedes the supply that this curriculum may be recommended with most confidence to students who wish certain employment after graduation.

Students completing this curriculum ar entitled to receiv the normalschool diploma in agriculture, provided that four courses in Education ar included.

Students deficient in writing, spelling, pronunciation, English composition or in the use of the dictionary, should take additional courses in these subjects.

Students ar urged to take the additional courses in agriculture provided in the second year during summer terms if they cannot do so before receiving their diploma.

Students who desire thoro preparation to serv as principals of community high-schools should combine this curriculum with studies offerd in the country-school department.

Students preparing to teach Agriculture in community high-schools should, if they can, spend three years in the normal school. A fourth year of work at the University of Illinois wil entitle them to teach Agriculture in Smith-Hughes high-schools.

THE TEACHERS COLLEGE

The purpose of the Teachers College is to afford adequate professional preparation for high-school teachers, principals, superintendents, and special teachers. Its curriculums provide for two years work in the Junior College, two years in the Senior College.

High-school graduates having the special preparation set forth on page 19 ar admitted to the Junior College and a program of study four years in length. (48 credits.)

Students in the Normal School may transfer to the Junior College if they hav completed fifteen units of work of secondary grade.

Normal-school graduates ar admitted to the Senior College and to a curriculum two years in length. (24 credits).

College graduates ar admitted to the Senior College and to a special professional curriculum one year in length. (12 credits, eight of them in education and teaching).

All students completing the prescribed curriculum receiv the degree of Bachelor of Education.

Students completing the curriculum of the Junior College may receiv the normal-school diploma, if their credits include four terms in education and two terms of teaching with a grade not lower than 80.

In the Teachers College four curriculums ar offerd. Curriculum K is for high-school teachers. Of the forty-eight credits required nineteen ar prescribed. The other twenty-nine ar electiv. Students following this curriculum ar required to select some major subject in which they ar to make at least nine credits. The student is expected to take also such other courses related to his major as ar recommended by the hed of the department in which his major lies. As a rule the electivs chosen should run thru the year.

The electiv courses fall into two lists designated B and A. First-year and second-year students may select from List B.

Students of the Senior College must select two of their four electiv courses from List A., the others may be chosen from List B. No course in List A may be taken unless its prerequisits in the Junior College hav been completed. College graduates may choose their electivs from any list, or from the normal-school programs approved by the president or dean. Two of the three terms in practis teaching listed in the Senior College may be taken in the second year. One must be taken in the last year.

Students in Curriculum K ar required to select some major subject in which they ar to make at least nine credits. The Student is expected to take also such other courses related to his major as ar prescribed by the hed of the department in which the major lies. As a rule the electivs chosen should run thru the year.

Curriculum H major in Home Economics prepares students for teaching in Smith-Hughes high-schools. It contains 17 technical courses in Home Economics, 10 courses in related sciences, 7 courses in education and practis teaching, 14 courses in miscellaneous subjects.

Curriculum L is pland for principals and supervisors of elementary schools. It contains courses in the content and method of the elementary school subjects with several courses in education dealing with the problems of teaching and supervision.

Curriculum M is pland for village principals and superintendents. It includes a variety of courses covering the studies of the elementary and high-school fields that ar not usually taught by special teachers. To these ar added courses in education and supervision. A large number of options ar provided.

Many of the senior college courses ar taught in the summer terms. Graduates of the junior college, by a term of study each summer, may, after six years of teaching, obtain without examination a state certificate, which when renewed after four years becomes a life certificate.

Students admitted to the Teachers College who ar found deficient in writing, spelling, composition, or oral expression ar required to take a special course in such subject during the second year.

While students who complete two years of this work may now receiv a first grade elementary certificate and become legally qualified to teach in high-schools, it is probable that this providion of the law wil soon be repeald. Students ar strongly advized to complete at least three years work before undertaking such teaching. If their electivs hav been properly chosen, they may then pass the examination for a county high-school certificate.

Graduates of the Senior College may be admitted to the graduate school of the University of Illinois subject to a tentativ condition of from eight to sixteen semester hours. If the person proves to be a superior student, the condition is canceld; if an average student he is held for eight semester hours which may be carried parallel to his graduate work; if an inferior student, he must make up the full condition of sixteen semester hours.

This curriculum is intended for students who wish to teach in superior country-schools and consolidated schools. The aim is to use in every course illustrations and examples drawn from country problems and conditions.

Electivs may be substituted for the stard courses.

Students found deficient in spelling, pronunciation, composition, or oral reading wil be required to take additional courses to remove this deficiency.

Students following this curriculum wil spend three weeks in February or March in observation and participation in some superior country school. Hence the other courses in the winter term second-year ar only for nine weeks.

Graduates of the eighth grade may elect 24 majors from this list and at the end of two years receive a provisional teacher's certificate.

Graduates of the tenth grade who complete 12 majors from this list may receive a provisional certificate.

Students who hav completed this curriculum may in three years complete any of the two-year curriculums A-J or M. They should consult the Dean in arranging their programs.

CURRICULUM P

THE PREPARATORY CURRICULUM

The preparatory curriculum is intended for students old enuf to enter the normal school, who, because of their maturity and diligence, ar able to complete the equivalent of a high-school course in less than four school years.

It is not intended for students who expect to engage in teaching after one or two years' attendance in the normal school. Such students should take curriculum O.

It is recommended for mature students who wish to take one of the curriculums A to N but lack the high-school preparation required.

Experienst teachers who wish to begin at once upon any of the curriculums A to N may arrange with the President or Dean to select part of their work from the preparatory program, part of it from the curriculum chosen.

Preparatory credit is reckond in units, a unit being the equivalent of 36 weeks of high-school work with daily recitations requiring preparation. The numerals after the various term courses indicate the fraction of a unit coverd by the term's work.

Students of the required age who hav completed the eighth grade and hav had no high-school work must complete fifteen units of preparatory work. Students who hav completed a partial high-school course, may, in consultation with the President or Dean, select from the preparatory program the units to be taken to complete the fifteen.

The stard courses ar electiv. Each student is required to take one stard subject each term in addition to the required subjects at the top of the list.

One term of Orthografy and Phonics should be included in every student's curriculum.

The ten required entrance units prescribed on page 19 should be included in every student's program.

Public Speaking is required daily for one term, weekly thruout the entire course. The total credit allowd is one unit.

Entrance credit allowd upon Teachers' Certificates:

1. A teacher who has taught eight months upon a first grade or a second grade certificate originally obtaind by examination after July 1, 1914, may receiv as entrance credit:

One-third of a unit of credit in each subject in which the grade on his certificate is 70-79 in his last examination.

Two-thirds of a unit if the grade is 80-89; one unit if the grade is 90-100.

2. No credit wil be counted in penmanship or orthografy.

Only one-third of a unit may be counted in Illinois history; twothirds of a unit in civics.

- 4. If credit for high-school work is allowd in any subject, no credit may be counted for a certificate grade in that subject.
- 5. No more than six units of entrance credit may be allowd upon any teacher's certificate.

THE UNIVERSITY HIGH SCHOOL

The act of the State Legislature creating Township Scholarships in the state normal schools for the benefit of graduates of the eighth grade obliges these institutions to provide academic courses for such holders of these scholarships as do not intend to become teachers, and also for such as ar looking to teaching but ar still too young to enter upon the regular normal-school programs.

Tuition is free to all holders of township scholarships.

Other students of suitable age, character, and preparation may be admitted upon payment of tuition at the rate of eighteen dollars per term, or six dollars per study where partial work is taken. Attendance is limited to 230.

Students whose tuition is to be paid from public funds should secure the necssary permits early in the fall term.

The high-school students ar seated in a separate study hall in charge of a principal and five teachers, who devote their entire time to the instruction and care of these high-school students and to the supervision of their work. Twenty-one other members of the regular faculty teach or supervise classes in the high school.

On pages 52-55 five programs of study ar outlind; one with Latin and French or Spanish for such students as expect to enter college, another designd especially for girls giving a large place to household economy, a commercial program, a manual training program, an agricultural program. Physical training and music must be taken at some time during the first three years. Monthly rhetorical exercises ar required of all students.

Class hours extend from 8:00 A. M. to 4:30 P. M. Students ar on duty in classroom, laboratory, shop, study hall or library during each class period unless excused by the principal.

It is the intention to develop this department into a model high-school. While the value of liberal culture and the demands of citizenship wil receiv due recognition in the arrangement of its courses, it is proposed to meet the growing demand that the high-school course shal prove directly servisable in preparing for high efficiency in useful occupations. Accordingly there ar arranged five chief programs, each four years in length, differing in the prominence given to particular groups of studies, and looking respectivly toward the speaking and writing professions, medicin and agriculture, engineering and bilding trades, commerce, and the household arts.

Graduates of the University High School ar admitted without examination to all universities and colleges belonging to the North Central Association of Colleges and Scondary Schools.

Holders of township scholarships and others who contempltate entering the University High School ar requested to register as early as is possible. Registration may be by mail.

A special bulletin describing the University High School wil be furnisht upon application.

The Agricultural Science in the foregoing program is in strict accordance with the program for agricultural high-schools recommended by the Illinois Educational Commission.

It is expected that the strictly agricultural work shal occupy about one-fourth of the time of the student, and that it shal be taught from a vocational standpoint to prospectiv or probable farmers.

Practically the entire range of farm affairs is covered by this course, and it is believed that a good basis wil be establisht for intelligent reading by the young farmer. The Normal University farm is not used for experiment to discover new agricultural truth, but for demonstration of good farming methods, of the effects of good fertilizers and rotations, of proper selection and treatment of seed, of modes of cultivation, of the proper care of live stock, and other details of farm practis. With the facilities and equipment at the command of the State Normal University, it is believed that the proper material, curriculum, and method of an agricultural high-school can be workt out.

The other studies in the agricultural program ar chosen with regard to their value to the farmer-citizen. They comprise natural science, government, and such studies in English as wil lead to fair skil in the use of the mother tung and to an appreciation of the best literature.

EDUCATION

Course 31. The Teacher and the School. A comprehensive introductory course in elementary education for beginners and those who look forward to the responsibilities of principal, supervisor, or superintendent. It includes a study of school organization, school management, the teaching process, how a teacher may test the efficiency of her own work; teaching pupils how to study; relation of teacher and school to the physical welfare of the pupils. Text: Colgrove's Teacher and the School, and Strayer and Engelhardt's Classroom Teacher. All terms.

Course 32. The Teaching Process. Also a course in elementary education, but more intensive than Course 31. It gives more time to the teaching process and classroom problems, and is intended for the more mature students and teachers of some experience. Text: Strayer's Teaching Process. More library reference study is done than in Course 31. All terms.

Course 33. Elementary Psychology. The aim is to giv an acquaintance with, and to some extent an ability to use, the principles of psychology of most value in teaching. Topics: Periods of mental development in children: their characteristics and causes. Instincts and the formation of habits. Theories of interest. Selected types of lerning. The significance of feeling in education. Mental fatig and hygiene. Defects of the senses: their detection and treatment. Text: Freeman's How Children Lern. All terms.

Course 34. General Method. The aim of this course is to derive pedagogical principles from an examination of educational aims, materials and psychological principles; to consider the relativ merit of the best teaching methods employd by skild teachers and to develop a fair understanding of the best known objectiv standards now being used to diagnose specific abilities or determin the relativ scholarship of children. Texts: Turner's Essentials of Good Teaching, McMurry's Method of the Recitation, Rowe's Habit Formation.

Course 35. Principles of Education. A study of fundamental principles underlying educational activities. Leading topics: educational aims, sources of human conduct, modifiability of conduct thru educational agencies, educational value of the studies and of other school agencies. Prerequisits: 33, 34. Texts: Ruediger's Principles of Education, Schroeder's Psychology of Conduct. Spring term, first summer term.

Course 36. School Management. A study of school organization, supervision, and class-room management. Consideration of school hygiene, personality of the teacher, the teacher's relations, and other factors that condition success in class management. Prerequisits: 33, 34. Texts: Tompkins's Philosophy of School Management, Dresslar's School Hygiene. All terms.

Course 37. History of Education. An elementary course covering the period from the Renaissance to the present. A brief study of the main European and American influences which hav given rise to modern educational theory and practis. Text: Monroe's Briefer Course. Spring term, first summer term.

Course 38. High-school Problems. A junior college course to be taken in place of Education 32 by students who ar preparing to teach in superior high schools. The purpose is to present the responsibilities and privileges of the high-school teacher in terms of the enlarging conception of the modern high school. The course is definitly related to actual school conditions, particularly in the University High School. Prerequisit: Psychology 33. Texts: Colvin's Introduction to High-school Teaching; King's The High-School Age. Collateral reading, individual and group reports, observation. Fall and spring terms.

Course 39. Rural Education. This is intended to be a practical course dealing with the supervision, organization, and maintenance of schools of the country town and countryside, with the organizations aiding or coöperating with the schools, and including a brief study of changes in the life of the small community and the means of adapting organization, equipment, maintenance, and curriculum to meet these new needs. Prerequisit, three courses in education. Text: Cubberley's Rural Life and Education. Fall term.

Course 40. The Village School. A study of the problems of the small town and consolidated school; the principal's personal relations to the board, to the teachers, to pupils, to parents, and to the public; problems of instruction, supervision, grading, curriculum, helth, physical education, student activities, and financing. Texts: Cubberly's Public School Administration, Finney and Shafer's Administration of Village and Consolidated Schools. Prerequisit, three courses in education. Winter term.

Course 41. Educational Psychology, First Half. For high school teachers, principals, and superintendents. A study of individual differences, and their causes, the inheritance of mental traits, theories of interest, types of lerning, formal disciplin, mental fatig and hygiene. Prerequisit: Course 33. Texts: Thorndike, Educational Psychology, Briefer Course, and Parker, Methods of Teaching in High Schools. Fall term, and first summer term of the even-numberd years.

Course 42. Educational Psychology, Second Half. Intelligence tests. A study of methods of testing intelligence, individually and in groups, in elementary and secondary schools; of plans for using the results in grading pupils, and for differentiating class instruction according to intelligence. Practis in using tests in the training school. Prerequisit: Course 33. Texts and materials: Terman's The Mesurement of Intelligence, Anderson's, The Education of Mental Defectives in the Public Schools, Hollingworth's The Psychology of Sub-normal Children, and Materials for Using the Stanford Scale. Winter term, and first summer term of odd-numberd years.

Course 43. Educational Tests and Mesurements. The purpose of this course is to train the teacher, supervisor, and administrator:

(1) to mesure objectivly the mastery of specific subjects in the elementary and secondary school curriculums by means of standardized tests and scales;

(2) to interpret the results as means of diagnosing the present achievements of pupils;

(3) to suggest remedial instruction on the basis of the findings.

Scales and standards for determining progress in handwriting, spelling, reading, arithmetic, composition, geografy, history, drawing, and the high-school subjects wil be studied. Practis in applying these scales.

Text: Monroe, Devoss and Kelly's Educational Tests and Mesurements. Spring term.

Course 44. Ancient and Medieval Education. A study of education among the ancient and medieval peoples, with special reference to the relation of education to the life of a people; constant comparison of historical situations with present-day social and educational conditions. Prerequisit: good courses in history, social science, and literature. Text: volumes I. and II. of Graves's History of Education. Fall term, and second summer term 1922.

Course 45. Education in modern Europe and the Orient. A study of the development and present status of education in leading European states, Japan and China. Adequate attention is given to educational theory and practis since the Renaissance, but due emfasis is placed upon the import of education as a social and political factor in modern civilization; comparison with conditions and problems in the United States. Prerequisit: courses in modern history. Text: volumes II. and III. of Graves' History of Education. Cloyd's Modern Education in Europe and the Orient and Cubberley's History of Education ar much used as reference books. Winter term, and second summer term 1923.

Course 46. Education in the United States. A genetic study of American education in its relation to national life and character; emergence of the institution of free public education for all the people; aims, subject-matter, methods, schools and organized systems, teachers; present tendencies. Prerequisit: good courses in history, literature, and social sciences. Text: Cubberley's Public Education in the United States. Spring term. Second summer term of 1924.

Course 47. School Administration. The national government, the state and local units of administration of public education; finance, organization, supervision; general, supplementary, and special education. Text: Dutton and Snedden's Administration of Public Education in the United States. Fall term, and first summer term of 1923.

Course 48. School Administration. The application of scientific methods in determining the efficiency of a school system; the interpretation of school statistics; school records, reports, surveys. Texts: Strayer and Thorndike's Educational Administration, McMurry's Elementary School Standards. Winter term and first summer term 1924.

Course 49. High School Administration. Curriculum, equipment, class organization, technique of management and supervision, relation to elementary and higher education, social activities. Text: Johnston's Modern High School. Spring term, and first summer term, 1925.

Course 21. Methods in Arithmetic. This course covers the arithmetic of the first six years and is a study of both the matter and the methods commonly used in these grades. Interpreted broadly it is defined as Primary Arithmetic, and means the thoro mastery and knowledge of the fundamental processes as applied to integers and fractions, both common and decimal, together with a study of some related material. Points of view, analyses, methods, tests, and plans for handling teaching difficulties ar discust. The order of development follows the State Course of Study in Arithmetic. This course is required for all students in Curriculum O and is given every spring term. Prerequisits: Courses 22 and 23. Text: Cook and Cropsey's Advanced Arithmetic, and the State Course of Study.

Course 22. Mensuration. This course covers the topics of the eighth year's work in Arithmetic in the Illinois State Course of Study. In this course the student arrives experimentally at the modes for mesuring areas and volumes, and uses the results in the solution of problems. In addition, many other simple truths of geometry ar discoverd by construction or mesurement. Text: Felmley's Arithmetic for the Eighth Year. Fall and summer terms.

Course 23. Percentage. This course covers the topics of the seventh year's work in arithmetic in the State Course of Study. As a basis for the work the three type problems of percentage ar studied. Then follows a consideration of the applications of percentage and special emfasis upon their economic aspects and the usages of the commercial world. Text: Moore and Miner's Practical Business Arithmetic. Winter and summer terms.

Course 31. Methods in Arithmetic. This course covers the same ground as Course 21, but is more comprehensiv and more advanst. It is pland for high-school graduates and for teachers of experience. Required of all students in Curriculums B, C, and L. Fall and winter terms. Texts: Cook and Cropsey's Advanced Arithmetic, The State Course of Study.

Course 32. Mensuration and Percentage. A course for high-school graduates, and for teachers of experience. It is the equivalent of Courses 22 and 23. Texts: For Mensuration, Felmley's Arithmetic for the Eighth Year; for Percentage, Moore and Miner's Practical Business Arithmetic. All terms.

ALGEBRA

Courses 14, 15. 16. These courses ar intended for students who hav not studied algebra. Course 14. Fall and First Summer terms. Taylor's Elements of Algebra, Chapters I-X. Course 15. Winter and Second Summer terms, Chapters XI-XVIII. Course 16. Spring. The conclusion of Advanst Algebra.

Course 21. Elementary Algebra. This course covers the first half of the work in Algebra and extends thru linear equations. Special attention is given to the notation of algebra and to the fundamental theorems of algebraic processes. Stress is laid on the teaching of the subject. For students who hav studied algebra a few months. First summer term. Taylor's Elements of Algebra. Chapters I-XV.

Course 22. Advanst Algebra. A continuation of Course 21. The course includes a study of indices and logarithms. The topics taught in our best high schools ar treated. Taylor's Elements of Algebra. Both summer terms.

Course 31. Algebra Review. This course covers all the important and difficult topics in the subject. Special emfasis is placed upon correct expression, exact definitions, the proof of principles, and the mastery of the reasons involved in the steps of the solution of a problem. The text is supplemented by full discussion of methods used in the current teaching of algebra. Prerequisit: a strong high-school course in algebra equal to the requirement of the best colleges. Text: Taylor's Elements of Algebra. Spring term.

Course 41. College Algebra. This is the regular freshman college algebra and includes first, reviews and proofs of some of the fundamental notions and principles of elementary algebra, second, the solution of more difficult problems in some of the topics using largely literal equations and expressions, and third, the regular topics of the course, the theory of equations, logarithms, partial fractions, permutations and combinations, probabilities, determinants, and limits. Prerequisits: Courses 21 and 22 or their equivalent. Text: Reitz and Crathorne's College Algebra. Fall term.

GEOMETRY

Course 21. Plane Geometry. This course covers the work of the first 125 pages of the text. Attention is paid to the nature and forms of proof, to the applications, and to the solution of originals. Prerequisit: Algebra 21. Text: Wentworth-Smith Plane and Solid Geometry. Fall and first summer terms.

Course 22. Plane Geometry. This course covers the remainder of the subject in which the fundamental notions of similarity, equivalency, and regularity of figures ar studied. Prerequisits: Algebra 21 and 22. Geometry 21. Text: Wentworth-Smith.

Course 31. Plane Geometry Review. This course covers all the ground described in Courses 21 and 22. It is designd for those who wish to review the plane geometry and at the same time study the method of teaching it. Only those who hav had a strong course in the subject in high school should take this course. Prerequisits: Courses 21 and 22, or their equivalent, and at least a year's work in algebra. Text: Wentworth-Smith Plane and Solid Geometry. Winter term.

Course 32. Solid Geometry. This is a thoro study of the geometry of space, the plane, the prism, the pyramid, and the three round bodies. Many theoretical and industrial problems ar solvd to apply the principles. Prerequisits: Algebra 21 and 22 or their equivalent, Courses 21 and 22 in Plane Geometry or their equivalent. Text: Wentworth-Smith. Winter, spring, and first summer terms.

Course 33. Algebra and Geometry Method. A course designd for prospectiv teachers of high-school mathematics. Texts: Smith's Teaching of Geometry and Young's Teaching of Mathematics. Spring and first summer terms.

Course 41. Trigonometry. This is the regular college course in plane and sferical trigonometry. The aim is to master the fundamental principles of the subject and its more important applications. The solutions of trigonometric identities and equations, or the analytic features, receiv attention as well as the solving of triangles. Prerequisits: Courses 21 and 22 in Algebra or their equivalent, Courses 21 and 22 in Geometry or their equivalent. Text: Taylor's Plane and Sferical Trigonometry. Separate volume of tables, Taylor. Winter term.

Course 42. Analytical Geometry. This is the regular college course in analytics with an introduction to solid analytics. The conics are treated from their ratio definition and analytic methods ar used thruout the course. The topics ar those usually taken in a first course in the subject, viz., the straight line, the circle, the parabola, the ellipse, hyperbola, etc. There ar a number of illustrativ problems to be solvd by the pupils. Prerequisits: College Algebra and Trigonometry. Text: Ashton's Plane and Solid Analytics. Spring term.

Elementary Astronomy. This course is intended for those who ar interested in the universe about us and who like to hav reasons given for the things they ar askt to accept. The aim is to present the subject so that a student wil get some knowledge of what has been accomplisht in Astronomy, something of the spirit which inspires the work, and something of the present state of the science. Use is made of the methods of the laboratory in securing, first hand, knowledge of common phenomena, and in cultivating a love for the skies above us. The course is an excellent basis for mathematical geografy and meteorology. Text: An Introduction to Astronomy, Moulton. Spring term.

PHYSICAL SCIENCE

INTRODUCTORY STATEMENT

The courses in physics ar intended to meet the needs of three classes of students:

- 1. Grade teachers. The elements of physical science bearing directly upon the life, comfort and convenience of the individual receiv concrete treatment. Method, also, receivs some attention. Students completing such courses ar prepared to direct children's attitude toward their physical environment.
- 2. Students conditiond in high-school physics. A two-term course, equivalent to one year of high-school physics, is designd for students who ar obliged to make up one unit of high-school physics required for entrance to the two-year programs A to J.
- 3. High-school teachers. General and specific advanst courses ar offerd, which amply prepare students for teaching physics and general science in high schools.

Course 11. Elements of Physical Science. Purpose: 1. To lead the student to form the habit of observing and studying science as it is applied to every-day life. 2. To furnish him with equipment for teaching physical science in the graded or ungraded school. 3. To equip him with physical and chemical principles needed in the study of geografy and the biological sciences. The course covers in a simple way but with much experimental work the following topics: production and use of heat; the wether; ventilation; water supply and sewage disposal; soil physics; home sanitation.

The experimental work deals with evaporation and condensation, air weight, air pressure, temperature mesurements, combustion and oxidation, wood, coal and petroleum, and many other experiments of similar character. Wether observations ar made thruout the course. The course is determind chiefly by the character of the phenomena which daily confront the student. Text: First Course in General Science, Barber and others (5 hours per week.) Winter term.

Courses 21 and 22. Elementary General Physics. A two-term course offerd especially to students who ar obliged to make up the one unit of high-school physics required to enter upon any of the two-year programs A to J.

Application of physics principles to daily life in the home and school ar given special attention. The laboratory work is not made an end in itself, but as a means of securing clear conceptions of the principles and applications.

Course 21 covers the mechanics of solids, liquids, and gases and heat. Course 22 covers magnetism, electricity, sound, light, and radio-activity.

Special attention is given to water supply, sewage disposal, heating, ventilating and lighting of residences and schoolrooms.

Prerequisits: Fair working knowledge of algebra, geometry, and Course 11 or its equivalent. They count only as half-credits in programs A to K.

Texts: Physics of the Household, Lynde, and other high-school texts as references, and Laboratory Exercises, Fuller and Brownlee. Seven hours per week. Course 21 fall term, mid-spring term, and first summer term. Course 22 spring term and both summer terms.

Courses 31 and 32. Household Physics. Courses similar to Courses 21 and 22, but intended for more mature students, especially in Home Economics. They meet the needs of teachers of Home Economics in Smith-Hughes high schools.

Prerequisits: Working knowledge of algebra and geometry and some previous study of physics. These courses giv major credits in programs A to K.

Texts: Same as for Courses 21 and 22 (7 hours per week.) Fall, winter and first summer term.

Courses 33 and 34. Advanst General Physics. A two-term course intended especially for mature students preparing to teach in high schools. The more difficult problems of high-school physics ar given special attention. Methods of high-school physics instruction and the technique of laboratory management receiv due attention.

Course 33 covers mechanics of solids, liquids, and gases, molecular physics and heat.

Course 34 covers magnetism, static and current electricity, sound, light, and radioactivity.

Prerequisits: A working knowledge of algebra, including logarithms. geometry and some previous study of high-school physics.

Texts: Practical Physics. Black and Davis, and Laboratory Exercises. Fuller and Brownlee (7 hours per week.) Course 33, fall term and first summer term. Course 34, winter term and both summer terms.

Course 35. Method in Physical Science for Elementary Schools. This course is offerd students in Curriculums A, B, L and M. It also meets the entrance requirement of students who hav had no chemistry.

Prerequisit: High-school physics. For students offering chemistry for entrance it is a major credit.

Text: First course in General Science, Barber and others. Winter term.

Course 36. Applied Mechanics. Especially intended for students in program K, Junior College. The course includes practical use of trigonometric tables.

Prerequisit: Physics 33 or 34 or equivalent. Major credit.

Text: Elementary Practical Mechanics, Jameson (7 hours per week.) Spring term.

Course 37. Sound, the Physical Basis of Music. This six-week course is required of students in program D in their Junior year.

Prerequisit: High-school physics.

Text: Sound and its relation to Music, Hamilton, and several reference texts (7 hours per week.) Winter term, the second six weeks. (See Course 42.)

Course 41. Magnetism and Electricity. This is a practical course in magnetism and electricity for high-school teachers.

Prerequisits: Physics 33 and 34, and ability to use logarithms and trigonometric tables. A major in the senior college.

Text: Elements of Electricity, Timbie. (7 hours per week.) Fall term.

Course 42. Light and Sound. The first six weeks ar devoted to light; the second six weeks to sound.

Prerequisits: Same as Course 41.

Texts: Essentials of Physics, Hering; Sound and its Relation to Music, Hamilton; and other reference texts. (7 hours per week.) Winter term. (See Course 37.)

Course 43. Heat. A practical course in heat for high-school teachers. It includes proximate analysis of fuels and some of the practical problems of commercial heating.

Prerequisits: Same as for Course 41. A major in Senior College.

Text: Heat, Randall. (7 hours per week.) Spring term.

Course 44. Laboratory Assistant. This is a practical course in the methods of high-school physics and high-school chemistry. Arrangement should be made with the heds of departments of physics of chemistry. May be substituted for one term of teaching. One-half of the time is devoted to the work required of a laboratory assistant, the other half is devoted to the study of a text on method.

Prerequisits: Courses 33, 34, and 36 in physics and Courses 31, 32, and 33 in chemistry.

Text: Science Teaching, Twiss. (10 hours per week.) Any term.

Course 45. General Science for High School Teachers. A course offerd to meet the growing demand for traind teachers in general science, a demand which far outruns the supply.

Prerequisit: A good working knowledge of the high-school sciences, especially physics, chemistry, and physicgrafy.

Text: First Course in General Science, Barber, and other general science texts. (7 hours per week.) Spring term.

CHEMISTRY

SELECTION OF COURSES

Students who ar conditiond in Chemistry on entrance should take Course 21 which is offerd each term. Candidates for the diploma or degree in any of the Household Science programs should take Courses 31, 32, 33, 41, and 42. Candidates for the diploma in Agriculture should take Courses 31, 32, 33, 43, 44, and 45 or 31, 32, 33, 41, 42. Students preparing to teach Chemistry in the high schools should take all courses except 21.

Course 21. Elementary Chemistry. A course intended for students who ar conditiond in Chemistry and who can spend but one term upon the subject. The course includes a study of fundamental chemical principles and applications, limited chiefly to the non-metals. This course cannot be substituted for Course 31. Text: Brownlee and Others' Elementary Principles of Chemistry Laboratory Manual; Exercises by the same authors. All terms.

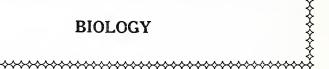

Course 31. General Chemistry. The first of a series of courses for students who ar to take three terms of general chemistry. The course includes a study of the elements oxygen, hydrogen, nitrogen, and their compounds. Fundamental laws of gases, of chemical combination, and of solution ar studied. The relation of a liquid to its solid and gas phases is considerd. The atomic and ionization theories ar given due attention. Chemical equations and simple calculations, electrolysis and neutralization ar studied.

Three recitations and two double laboratory periods per week. Students who hav not had a course in high-school chemistry ar required to devote three more periods per week, largely of laboratory work. Text: A Course in General Chemistry, McPherson and Henderson; Laboratory Manual by the same authors. Fall, spring and first summer terms.

Course 32. General Chemistry. A continuation of Course 31. This course includes a study of the elements sulfur, fluorin, chlorin, bromin, iodin, carbon, silicon, boron, fosforus and their common compounds. Valence, chemical equilibrium, the periodic law, molecular and atomic weights and thermo-chemistry ar also studied. Elementary organic chemistry and a study of fuels ar included. Text and Laboratory Manual same as for Course 31. Prerequisit: Chemistry 31. Winter and first summer terms

Course 33. General Chemistry. A continuation of Course 32 including a study of the metals, simple metallurgical processes, alkali production, water softening and the silicate industries. Elementary qualitativ analysis is studied. Text and Laboratory Manual: same as for Courses 31 and 32. Prerequisit: Chemistry 32. Spring and second summer terms.

- Course 41. Organic Chemistry. A study of the compounds of carbon including the alifatic hydrocarbons, alcohols, acids, ethers, anhydrids, esters, fats, aldehydes, ketones, amins, amids, halogen derivativs, mixt compounds, the common kinds of isomerism and the theory of the asymmetric carbon atom. Extensiv use of structural formulas as a means of expressing chemical properties is made. Particular attention is paid to the organic compounds of the household and farm. Text: Organic Chemistry, Norris. Laboratory Manual: Experimental Organic Chemistry, Norris. Prerequisits: Courses 31, 32, 33 or their equivalents. Fall term.
- Course 42. Organic Chemistry. A continuation of the study of the alifatic compounds and elementary study of the carbocyclic compounds including carbohydrates, proteins, simple digestion experiments, aromatic hydrocarbons, nitro-derivativs, sulfonic acids, amins, anilin, diazocompounds, phenols, avids, and dyes. Text and Laboratory Manual: same as for Course 41. Prerequisit: Course 41. Winter term.
- Course 43. Qualitativ Analysis. A continuation of the qualitativ analysis begun in Course 33, including extended study of the methods of anion and cation separation and identification based on the ionic theory and chemical equilibrium. Qualitativ analysis of insecticides, fertilizers, soils and waters, ordinary and mineral, is undertaken. The course is particularly valuable to students of agriculture and to students intending to teach high-school chemistry. Text and Laboratory Manual: Qualitativ Analysis, Treadway-Hall. Prerequisits: Courses 31, 32, 33 or their equivalents. Fall and first summer terms.
- Course 44. Quantitativ Analysis. The course includes such fundamental gravimetric operations as construction and use of the chemical balance, determination of chlorin, sulfur and fosforus. Analysis of rock fosfate and limestone ar undertaken. The course also includes such fundamental volumetric operations as the preparation of standard acids, bases, oxidizers, and iodin and the use of these in volumetric analysis. A study of chemical problems based on the above analytical operations is made. Text and Laboratory Manual: Elementary Quantitativ Analysis, Lincoln and Walton. Prerequisit: Course 43 or its equivalent. Winter term.
- Course 45. Quantitativ Analysis. A continuation of Course 44 including the application of gravimetric and volumetric methods to the analyses of foods and feeding stuffs, fertilizers and soils. Chemical problems related to soil fertility and crop production ar considerd. Text and Laboratory Manual: same as for Course 44. Prerequisit: Course 44 or its equivalent. Spring term.
- Course 46. The Teaching of Chemistry. A study of the fundamental problems of teaching high-school science with particular attention given to high-school chemistry. The course involved laboratory management and teaching a class in chemical laboratory work in the University High School. This course may be substituted for a term of teaching. Text: Science Teaching, Twiss. Prerequisit: Courses 31, 32, 33, and 41 or 43 and Courses 33, 34 and 36 in Physics. Fall, winter, or spring terms.

The courses in botany and in zoölogy ar organized primarily to meet the needs of those preparing to teach in the high school. Courses 31 and 32, in both botany and zoölogy, serv as general introductory courses. In both subject matter and in method of presentation these courses ar intended to serv as model high-school courses, but include additional material which makes them the equivalent of introductory courses as taught in collegiate institutions. Together with the above courses, Courses 33 and 34 ar regarded as essential in the minimum preparation for teaching botany and zoölogy in high schools.

The advanst work included in the courses numberd 41 and above is intended to giv those preparing to teach a more extensiv and intensiv knowledge of the subjects and to prepare them for advanst work in the biology departments of larger high schools.

BOTANY

Course 31. Phanerogamic Botany. This course is designd to giv a general knowledge of the morphology, physiology, classification, and ecology of the seed plants. The work consists of experiments, field trips, lectures, text and library assignments. Texts: Ganong's Text Book in Botany for Colleges and Gray's New Manual of Botany. Spring, mid-spring, and both summer terms. Prerequisit: None.

Course 32. Cryptogamic Botany. This course is designd to giv a general knowledge of the seedless plants. A study is made of type forms, establishing an evolutionary sequence from the algae to the seed plants. Special emfasis is given to bacteria and fungi. Texts: Ganong's Text Book in Botany and Conn's Bacteria, Yeasts, and Molds in the Home. Fall and second summer terms. Prerequisit: Botany 31 or its full equivalent.

Course 41. Plant Morphology. A detaild study is made of representativ types from each of the four great plant groups from an evolutionary standpoint. Text: Text Book of Botany, Coulter, Barnes, and Cowles, Vol. I. Fall term of 1922-23 and each alternate year thereafter, and the second summer term of 1923. Prerequisits: Botany 31 and 32 or equivalent.

Course 42. Plant Physiology. A detaild study of the various physiological processes of plants, such as the in-ta're of material, respiration, nutrition, growth and response. The work consists of experiments, lectures, text and library assignments. Text: Text Book of Botany, Coulter, Barnes, and Cowles, Vol. I. Winter term and second summer term 1924. Prerequisits: Botany 31 and second-year standing.

Course 43. Plant Ecology. A study of the influence of environmetal factors on plant structures and on plant distribution. Text: Text Book of Botany, Coulter, Barnes, and Cowles, Vol. II. Spring term 1923, each alternate year thereafter, and first summer term 1922. Prerequisits: Botany 41 and 42 or equivalent.

Course 44. Plant Pathology. A study of the more important plant diseases which ar caused by bacteria and fungi. Text: None. Fall term 1923-24, each alternate year thereafter and first summer term 1923. Prerequists: Botany 31 and 32, or equivalent.

Course 45, 46. Bacteriology. A general laboratory course in bacteriology. Text: Jordan's General Bacteriology. Winter and spring terms 1923-24 and alternate years thereafter; Course 45 first summer term 1924; Course 46 first summer term 1925. Prerequisits: Botany 31 and 32 or their equivalent.

ZOOLOGY

Course 31. Invertebrate Zoölogy. A general introductory course in Zoölogy dealing with the principles of structure, of function, of inter-relations, and of development among invertebrate animals, including a discussion of the simple and best establisht theories concernd with this group of animals. Text: Pearse's General Zoölogy. Fall, mid-spring, first and second summer terms. Prerequisit: None.

Course 32. Vertebrate Zoölogy. A continuation of Course 31 into the group Chordata. Text: Pearse's General Zoölogy. Winter and second summer term. Prerequisit: Zoölogy 31 or its full equivalent.

Courses 41, 42, 43. General Zoölogy. An intensiv study of the morphology with application of biological principles to representativs from the various animal groups exclusiv of the group Insecta. Text: Hegner's College Zoölogy. Fall, winter, and spring term 1923-24 and alternate years thereafter; Course 41 first summer term 1923; Course 42 first summer term 1924; Course 43 first summer term 1925. Prerequisits: Zoölogy 31 and 32 or equivalent.

Course 44. General Entomology. A general introductory course dealing with morphology, physiology, ecology, and taxonomy of insects. Text: Folsom's Entomology. Fall term 1922 and alternate years thereafter; second summer term 1925. Prerequisit: Zoölogy 31 or equivalent.

Course 46. Economic Entomology. This course deals specifically with the insect pests which infest fields, gardens, and orchards and those which ar responsible for the spred of human and animal diseases. The course involvs a large amount of field work. Text: Sanderson's Insect Pests of Farm, Orchard, and Garden. Spring term 1921 and alternate years. and second summer term 1923. Prerequisit: Entomology 44 or equivalent.

BIOLOGY

Course 33. Taxonomic Biology. This course is divided into two parts, Dendrology and Ornithology, each of which may be taken separately as a minor. Dendrology and Ornithology taken together constitute a major subject.

Dendrology. A study, from a taxonomic point of view, of the trees, shrubs and wild flowering plants of the local flora; of the decorativ plants grown in the school garden and local nurseries. Text: Gray's New Manual of Botany. Given spring term, Monday, Wednesday and Thursday. Prerequisit: None.

Ornithology. An identification of the common birds of the vicinity including a study of food relations, seasonal distributions, economic importance and means for preservation of bird life. Text: Reed's Land and Song Birds. Spring term, three hours Saturday morning. Prerequisit: None.

Course 34. Biology Method. This course deals with the outcomes that should be aimd at in the teaching of biology in the high school; with the selection and organization of subject matter for high-school courses; with the methods of laboratory and classroom instruction; with the collection and preservation of laboratory and museum materials; and with the general current problems of science teaching in the high schools. Students should take this course the last year before leaving the institution to teach biology in the high school. Text: Ganong's Teaching Botanist. Winter term, and first summer term. Prerequisits: Botany 31 and 32, Zoölogy 31 and 32, and Physiology 31.

Course 45. Evolution. A study of the proofs of evolution with a discussion of the factors involved in the process and including a discussion of the facts of heredity and outgrowing problems. Texts: Evolution and Animal Life, Jordan and Kellogg, and Morgan's A Critique of the Theory of Evolution. Winter term 1922-1923 and alternate years; second summer term 1924. This course may be taken by students not majoring in biology for its general cultural values. Prerequisits: Zoölogy 31 and 32 or equivalent.

PHYSIOLOGY

Course 21. Physiology and Hygiene. An elementary course for students who hav not studied Zoölogy or Physics. Text: Advanst Physiology and Hygiene, Conn and Buddington. Winter term. Prerequisit: None.

Course 31. The Human Body. As much of the anatomy of the mammalian body and of the physiology of animals and plants as time permits is taught, as a basis for the understanding of the fundamental life processes. This knowledge givs a background for the intelligent study of hygiene, which is the aim of the course. Texts: Stiles's Human Physiology and Hough and Sedgwick's Human Mechanism. Fall, winter and spring term classes for women. A winter term class for men. Summer term classes include both men and women. Prerequisits: Zoölogy 31 or its equivalent and Elementary Physics.

Course 33. Rural Hygiene. This course is designd for students in Curriculum M. It includes problems of hygiene and sanitation in rural communities; methods to employ in helping children to take on habits that make for good helth, and a study of the anatomy, physiology, and hygiene of the human body. Texts: Ogden's Rural Hygiene, and Stiles's Human Physiology. Prerequisits: High School Zoölogy and Elementary Physics.

Course 41. Nutritional Physiology. A course in physiology and hygiene with special emfasis upon digestion and metabolism. It is required of all students graduating in domestic science or in physical education and open to all having the prerequisits. Text: Stiles's Nutritional Physiology. Winter term. Prerequisits: Chemistry 31 and 32, Zoölogy 31 or its equivalent and Physiology 31 or it equivalent.

Course 42. Sanitation and Public Hygiene. A study of the application of modern knowledge in chemistry, bacteriology, and physiology to public-helth problems. Recommended especially to students majoring in biology or in domestic science. Text: Sedgwick's Principles of Sanitary Science and the Public Health. Spring term. Prerequisits: Botany 32 and Physiology 31.

NATURE STUDY

There is a growing demand for better traind teachers in nature study and elementary science. Many schools ar adopting a partial departmental plan in order to secure teachers who ar equipt to do the work. Students who wish to prepare for positions as special teachers or supervisors of nature study should, if possible, take the following courses: Nature Study 31, 41, 42 and 43; Botany 33, and Physics 35.

Course 11. Agricultural Nature Study. This course deals with common plants and animals found in the environment of country children. Its purpose is to help students form the acquaintance of nature-study material. Some attention is given to methods of teaching country children. Text: Mann's Beginnings in Agriculture. Fall term. Prerequisit: None.

Course 12. Agricultural Nature Study. This is a continuation of Course 11 in which the spring aspect of plant and animal life is considerd. Text: Mann's Beginnings in Agriculture. Prerequisit: None.

Course 31. Nature Study Material and Method. This course is designd for students who expect to teach in the grades. Its aim is two-fold: (1) to enable students to form the acquaintance of nature-study material at first hand; (2) to demonstrate methods in teaching the material to children of the various grades. The course includes a study of wild and cultivated plants, birds, insects, life in water, stars and constellations. Attention is given to ways of correlating nature study with other school subjects. Texts: Practical Nature Study, Coulter and Patterson, and Patterson's Lessons in Nature Study. Prerequisits: High School Botany or High School Zoölogy.

Course 32. Agricultural Nature Study. A course for students in Curriculum N. It deals with material suggested in the State Course of Study; methods of manipulation and presentation, including experiments. The chief topics considerd ar garden, farm, and fruit crops, trees, insects, fungi, and domestic animals. Text: Patterson's Studies in Science. Prerequisits: High School Botany or High School Zoölogy.

Course 33. Agricultural Nature Study. This is a continuation of Course 32. The spring aspect of plant and animal life is considerd, also a study of soil, birds, and ways to relate the work of the school to home projects and boys' and girls' clubs. Text: Patterson's Studies in Science. Prerequisits: High School Botany or High School Zoölogy.

Course 41. Nature Study Supervision. This course is designd for students who ar specializing in nature study or except to supervise grade work. It deals with the underlying principles of nature study, methods of teaching, including observation of lessons in the Training School, and equipment necessary to conduct the work effectively. A large use is made of reference books. Text: None. Fall term. Prerequisits: High School Botany, High School Zoölogy, or Nature Study 31.

Course 42. Nature Study Organization. This follows Course 41, but may be taken without the fall course. It emfasizes the winter fases of nature study and the organization of material into courses for the various grades. Observation and participation of lessons in the Training School ar continued. Text: None. Winter term. Prerequisits: High School Botany, High School Zoölogy, or Nature Study 31.

Course 43. Home and School Gardens. The course includes work in practical gardening, studies in landscaping home and school grounds, and methods of managing and directing children's gardens. Part of the time is given to actual supervision of children in their home gardens. Text: Bailey's Garden Manual. Spring term. Prerequisit: High School Botany.

Course 21. Elementary Physiografy. A study of the earth as a globe, he land, ocean, and atmosfere, and their relation to plant, animal, and human life. This course or its equivalent is prerequisit to all other courses in geografy. Text: Salisbury's Modern Geografy. All terms.

Course 31. Human Geografy. A study of the geografic factors of world-wide importance which determin the distribution of people, their occupations and industries; a basis for the geografic interpretation of more limited regions in later courses. Texts: Herbertson's Man and His Work; Bartholomew's Economic Atlas. (6 weeks.) Winter and spring terms.

Course 32. General Geografy of the World. This course covers essentially the same ground as Course 31, with a larger selection of typical regions and more extensiv library reading; a desirable first course in geografy for students in Curriculum K. Texts: Same as for Course 31 (12 weeks.) Fall term.

Course 33. Primary Geografy. An examination of the course of study with especial attention to subject-matter and method for third, fourth, and fifth grades, including Home Geografy, World as a Whole, and the first study of a continent. Texts: Dodge and Kirchwey's The Teaching of Geografy in the Elementary Schools; Branom's The Teaching of Geografy. Spring term.

Course 34. Geografy of North America. A thoro study from the teacher's standpoint of the geografy of North America using materials suitable for presentation to fifth and sixth grade pupils, including topics of the State Course of Study. Text: Tarr & McMurry's Second Book; Bartholomew's Economic Atlas. Extensiv library work required. Fall, spring, and first summer terms.

Course 35. Geografy of South America. This course develops a method of continental study as required in seventh and eighth years' work of the State Course of Study; the causal factor in geografy made prominent. Texts: Bowman's South America; Bartholomew's Economic Atlas. Extensiv library reading. Winter term and summer terms of 1924.

Course 36. Geografy of the Eastern Continents. A study of Asia, Africa, and Australia covering the eighth year's work of the State Course of Study; emfasis placed on the interpretation of geografic factors and their significance in the study of continents. Texts: Tarr & McMurry's Second Book; Bartholomew's Economic Atlas. Extensiv library work required. Spring and summer terms 1923.

Course 37. Commercial Geografy. A study of production and movement of the world's chief products; geografic interpretations of the distribution of population and localization of industries; a course of value to all teachers of geografy in elementary school or high school. Texts: Smith's Industrial and Commercial Geografy, Bartholomew's Economic Atlas. All terms.

Course 11. Elementary Physical Geografy. A course similar to Course 21, with emfasis, from the standpoint of the teacher, on those topics of physical geografy which ar treated in the fourth-year geografy of the State Course of Study. Text: Salisbury's Modern Geografy. Spring term.

Course 12. Geografy Method for Country School. A thoro analysis of the State Course of Study; materials and methods suitable for each grade; a survey of the field of geografy from the standpoint of teachers who hav several grades to teach during the year. Texts: Tarr & Mc-Murry's Second Book; Herbertson's Man and His Work. Fall term and first summer term.

Course 41. Geografy of Europe. A regional study of the continent; a study of the leading countries; an interpretation of the geografic aspects of the World War; the New Map of Europe, the geografic and national factors associated with the determination of new boundary lines in Europe and European possessions. Texts: Lyde's the Continent of Europe, Rand McNally's Atlas of Reconstruction for Schools. Fall term, 1922.

Course 42. Method in Geografy. An examination of the basis for a course of study in geografy; comparison of leading courses from various regions of the United States; the formulation of a course of study for the elementary schools; materials and methods for developing the course. Texts: McMurry's Special Method in Geografy; Branom's The Teaching of Geografy. Winter term, 1922-23.

Courses 43. Advanst Physiografy. A study of the earth as a globe, land, water, atmosfere, and their relation to plant and animal life from the standpoint of the high-school teacher; use of smiple apparatus; interpretation of wether maps and topografic maps; local field lessons. Text: Salisbury's Advanst Physiografy. Spring term, 1923.

Course 44. General Geology. A brief review of geologic processes usually treated in physiografy; a study of historical geology with special reference to the geologic development of North America; interpretation of topografic and geologic maps; field trips to regions where bed rock is well exposed; special treatment of geology of Illinois. Text: Chamberlin and Salisbury's Introductory Geology. Fall term, 1923.

Course 45. Climatology. A study of the atmosfere with reference to general wind circulation; cyclonic storms as wether controls in temperate latitudes; interpretation of wether and climate of the world and their influence on plant and animal life and human activities; a visit to the U. S. Wether Bureau at Peoria or Springfield. Text: Milham's Meteorology. Winter term, 1923-24.

Course 46. Conservation of Natural Resources. A study of the natural resources of the United States and the world; production, use, and conservation of minerals and forests; conservation of soil fertility, reclamation of arid lands and swamp lands; present use and future possibilities of water power and inland water navigation. Text: Van Hise's Conservation of Natural Resources in the United States. Spring term, 1924.

HISTORY

Course 21. The Founding of the American Nation. Text: Forman's Advanst History. Fall, spring, and first summer terms.

Course 22. The Growth of the American State. This course continues the work of Course 21, bringing the narrativ down to the present. Text: Forman's Advanst History. Winter and second summer terms.

Course 23. Ancient History. A course for non-high-school graduates. Text: The Ancient World, West. Fall and summer terms.

Course 24. Medieval History. This course is intended for the students who hav had ancient history. Text: History of Western Europe, Robinson. Winter and summer terms.

Course 31. American History to the Civil War. This course is intended for students who hav studied U. S. History in the high school or who hav taught the subject. Text: A Short History of the United States, Bassett. Winter and first summer terms.

Course 32. Recent American History. An intensive study of our development since the Civil War. Text: A Short History of the United States, Bassett. Spring and both summer terms.

Course 33. History Method in Lower Grades. This course is to giv the student an understanding of the meaning of history and its purposes in the grades. Fall term.

Course 34. History Method for High Schools. The scope of history in the high school, its aims, methods of study and recitation. Winter term.

Course 35. Modern European History. This is a study of the expansion of Europe since the 16th century. Text: History of Western Europe, Robinson. Spring and summer terms.

Course 36. English History. This course develops the narrativ of English History from the beginning of the Tudor period to the present. Text: Short History of England, Cheney. Fall term.

Course 41. American History. This course is an intensive study of the colonial and revolutionary periods of American History. It is intended for prospective high-school teachers of history, politics, and social science. Fall term 1923 and second summer term 1923.

Course 42. This is similar in method to Course 41 and covers the period from 1783 to the Civil War. Winter term 1923-24, and second summer term 1924.

Course 43. This is a study of Reconstruction, with the resulting southern problems; growth of municipalities; commercial expansion; rise of corporations, and other recent problems. Spring term 1924 and first summer term 1925. Texts: Lingley, Since the Civil War; Paxson's Recent History of the United States.

Course 44. European History to 1648. This course, as well as Courses 45 and 46, ar intended for special students in history and prospectiv social science teachers. Text: Robinson and Beard. Fall term 1922 and first summer term 1923.

Course 45. European History 1648-1815. Text: Robinson and Beard, Winter term 1922-23, and first summer term 1924.

Course 46. European History 1815-1900. Texts used in Courses 44 to 46 ar Robinson and Beard's The Development of Modern Europe (2 vols.), and the accompanying Readings (2 vols.), and Turner's Europe 1789-1921. Spring term 1923, and second summer term 1922.

CIVICS

Course 11. Elementary Civics. This course is for beginners who hav neither studied civics in the high school nor had any experience in teaching it, and desire to prepare for a county elementary certificate. An effort is made to gain an insight into the spirit, form, and functions of our government. Minor. First summer term. Text: Forman's The American Republic, Dole's The New American Citizen.

Course 21. Advanst Civics. An advanst course in civics intended for students who hav had the elementary work or hav had experience as teachers of this subject. The origin and growth of laws and institutions ar studied. The relation of our constitution to colonial charters, to the political experiences of the provincial era, as well as to the English constitution, is traced with care.

The rights and duties of the citizen, his relation to the nation, to the states, and the units of local government ar considerd as essential topics. Spring and summer terms. Texts: Civil Government in the United States, Fiske; Advanced Civics, Forman.

Course 31. Political Science. This course deals with the nature, scope, and methods of political science; the nature, functions, and sfere of the state; nationality, citizenship, its rights and duties; constitutions; their sources and kinds; the distribution of government powers. Text: Introduction to Political Science, Garner. Fall term. Prerequisit: Civics 21 or its equivalent.

Course 32. Political Parties and Party Machinery. A study of the history of political parties in the United States and the development of party machinery. The course begins with the organization of the Federalist and Republican parties under the leadership of Hamilton and Jefferson in Washington's administration and traces those parties to their dissolution in 1820-24. The rise of the Whig and Democratic parties as successors to the Federalist and Republican parties will next be considerd, together with the origin and history of the National Nominating Convention. The organization of the Republican party of today and the history of that party, together with that of the Democratic party, to the present time. The rise of the Primary system toward a National Primary for nominating President and Vice-President. The initiativ, referendum, and recall platforms, the party boss and his system, along with prominent party leaders as Jefferson, Hamilton, DeWitt Clinton, Martin Van Buren, Thurlow Weed, Robert Toombs, Jefferson Davis, Thaddeus Stevens, Marcus Hanna and Theodore Roosevelt. Winter term. Texts: Parties and Party Machinery, Macy; History of the Presidency, Stanwood. Prerequisit: Course 21 or its equivalent.

- Course 36. Advanst Color. This is a continuation of Course 35 for students in special art courses. Comparison in color is the aim of this class. Prerequisit: Course 35. Two hours daily. Spring term.
- Course 37. Blackboard Drawing. This course offers practis in drawing at the blackboard. Quick effectiv sketches. The work is based upon a knowledge of light and shade and skill in drawing. Half credit. Spring term.
- Course 38. Art Appreciation. A brief history of art from the Renaissance period thru the modern schools. The school is well equipt with a good reference library, pictures, lantern slides, casts, and other collections. Texts: DeGarmo's Art Appreciation and Van Dyke's History of Art. Winter term.
- Course 39. Art Organization. The function of art in the public schools. The different branches taught and their relation to each other. Students plan and make courses of study that may be used in elementary schools. Half credit. Spring term.
- Course 41. Oil painting. A study of picture making; how to paint, what to represent, and how to organize a picture. Two hours daily. Prerequisit: Course 35. Spring term.

COURSES IN DESIGN

- Course 31. Principles of Design. The aim of the course is to giv the student an understanding of the fundamental bases of design with the two-fold purpose of (1) enabling him to recognize good design in commercial products and (2) stimulating his own creativ imagination. Half credit. Fall term and summer terms.
- Course 32. Primary Handwork. The subjects of paper construction, clay modeling, weaving, coarse needlework, stenciling and simple basketry ar studied from the standpoint of their educational value. The opportunities for correlating handwork with the other subjects in the curriculum ar constantly in mind. Half credit. All terms.
- Course 33. Art Metal and Jewelry. Problems involving etching, sawpiercing stippling, raising, riveting and repousse ar given during the first half of the term. The remaining time is devoted to jewelry making in silver, including the setting of stones. A series of problems is pland which may be carried out in high schools with very little equipment. Design is a prerequisit. Two hours daily. Fall term.
- Course 34. Pottery. The course in pottery includes free modeling, coil-bilding, work on the potter's wheel, the making of molds and casting. Some study is made of the composition of glazes and students lern to apply glazes and to care for and run the kiln. The history of the ceramic art is briefly considerd. Two hours daily. Winter term.
- Course 35. Book-binding. The course includes problems of progressiv difficulty, suitable for primary, intermediate and upper grades, which may be given in the regular schoolroom without expensiv equipment, such as: booklets, portfolios, notebooks, scrapbooks and pamflets. One or more books wil be bound in standard binding and some time wil be devoted to the repairing of books. Two hours daily. Spring term and first summer term.
- Course 36. Home planning. The course deal with the home, its location, surroundings, plan, and construction, and with the several fases of interior decoration. The treatment of walls and floors, floor-covering, the selection and arrangement of furnishings, and color ar among the subjects considerd. This course is pland so as to be practical in application. Course 31 is a prerequisit. Two hours daily. Winter term, and first summer term. Half-credit in summer terms.
- Course 37. Dress Design. Design principles and color theory ar here studied in terms of dress and its relations to the wearer. The course includes practical problems in representation and the technical difficulties ar adjusted to the ability of the student. Some work is given in modeling in paper or cloth with the object of gaining a more thoro understanding of the construction of garments and as an added means of originating designs. Course 31 is a prerequisit. Two hours daily in fall term. Half credit in summer terms.
- Course 38. Commercial Design. The principles of design ar studied in their relation to advertising, particular attention being given to the subjects of composition, lettering, and color. Some study is made of the processes by which drawings ar reproduced. Design is a prerequisit. Half credit. Spring term.

MANUAL ARTS

The courses in the manual arts hav a dual purpose: (a) To provide information, skill and experience in working in the most commonly taught manual arts, and (b) To train students in the technic and methods of teaching these subjects.

The demand for teachers who ar traind to teach the manual arts is far in excess of the supply.

Courses 1 and 2. Benchwork in Wood. The aim of these courses is to teach the tool processes ordinarily used in upper grammar grade and high-school woodworking. Articles useful in the home ar designd and made by the students. Texts: Workshop Note-Book, Greene; Handwork in Wood, Noyes. Two periods daily. Fall, winter, and summer terms.

Course 31. Wood-Turning and Pattern-Making. The tool processes used by the wood-turner and the principles of pattern-making ar taught by demonstration and practis. Prerequisit: Course 1. Text: Pattern-Making Note-Book, Green. Spring term.

Course 32. Furniture Construction Factory Method, Using Woodworking Machinery. This course give an experience in the factory method of construction. Each student is given from one to two weeks of work on each machine thus receiving a varied training. The work consists of cabinet-making, furniture construction and wood finishing. Prerequisit: Course 1. Two periods daily. Winter term.

Course 33. Elementary Woodwork. The purpose of this course is the laying out of a course of study for the fifth and sixth grades, with a group of models for each grade. Most of the time is devoted to toy making. Emfasis is placed upon design, painting, and decoration. One hour per day for twelv weeks. Half credit. Spring and first summer terms.

Course 34. Teaching and Organization of Manual Arts. The following subjects ar considerd in this course: Manual arts movements and influences. Proper place in education. Development of appreciation. Types and classification. The philosofy, psychology and aims of the manual arts. Typical methods of teaching. The lesson and lesson plans. Class management. Success and standards of a teacher. Forms of the manual arts. Selection and organization of subject matter. Early methods of organization. The group system. Supervision of the manual arts. Equipments and courses of study. Texts: Teaching the Manual and Industrial Arts, Griffith; and The Manual Arts, Bennett. Prerequisit: Course 1. Fall and first summer terms.

Course 35. Mechanical Drawing. This is a course for beginners and includes working drawings, lettering, geometrical drawings, problems in projection, intersections of solids, development of surfaces, sheet metal drafting, tracing and blue printing. Students may furnish their own instruments or rent them from the department. Two hours a day for twenty-four weeks. Two credits. Text: Mechanical Drawing. Phillips and Orth. Mechanical Drawing Problems. Weick. All terms.

XXXXX

Course 36. Machine Drawing. This is an advanst course for students who wish to be prepared to teach mechanical drawing in high schools. The special conventions of machine drawing, sketching, detailing, assembling, etc., are presented to the student in this course. Two hours per day for 12 weeks, 1 credit. Prerequisit: Mechanical Drawing. Text: Mechanical Drawing Problems, Weick. Fall term.

Course 37. Architectural Drawing. This course includes architectural letters, conventions, plans and elevations, study of materials and specifications. One hour per week is devoted to the study of the history of architectural forms through the use of lectures and lantern slides. Two hours per day for 12 weeks, 1 credit. Prerequisit: Course 35. Text: Progressiv Step in Architectural Drawing, Seaman. Spring term.

Course 38. Principles and History of Manual Training. Minor. This course follows the various movements and influences that hav contributed to our present day manual arts courses, and considers especially the philosofy and basic principles of each. The work of educational reformers, the manual labor movement, the land grant influences, arts and crafts, sloyd, the Russian system, present day manual training and vocational education ar studied. Spring term.

Course 39. Furniture Designing and Construction. Major or Minor. This course consists of a study of the principles of design useful in the various manual arts, period furniture, and the designing of furniture that can be made in school shops. When taken as a major an article of furniture must be constructed. Prerequisit: Course 1. Spring and first summer terms. Text: Industrial Arts Design, Varnum.

The work in home economics is pland to meet the requirements of the Smith Hughes Act as interpreted by the State Board of Vocational Education. The full curriculum extends over four years and includes:

- 1. Practical courses in clothing, foods and household management, gardening, dormitory management, care of infants, etc.
 - 2. Technical courses in design, chemistry, and other sciences.
 - 3. Academic courses in English, civics, economics, etc.
 - 4. Professional courses in education including practis teaching.

Besides this four-year curriculum known as H major, there is a three-year curriculum which omits ten of the forty-eight courses, and also a two-year curriculum in domestic art, a two-year curriculum in domestic science, and a two-year curriculum in foods and clothing for teachers in elementary schools.

A normal-school diploma wil be granted to any student completing any one of these two-year curricula.

In addition to the courses listed in this curriculum, work in home projects is required during the third and fourth years. Development of home projects by the individual student and the supervision of similar projects in the practis classes ar included in this work.

The degree, Bachelor of Education, is granted upon the completion of the full four-year course.

The facilities afforded in Normal for the practical study of dormitory management, the care of infants, gardening, the conduct of school lunch rooms, the care of the sick ar surpast in few institutions. Especial emfasis is laid upon practical courses in cooking and sewing.

HOUSEHOLD ART

It is the purpose of these courses to provide for the adequate training of teachers in household art.

Materials ar furnisht by students for all courses except Course 42 for which a fee of three dollars is charged.

Course 21. Rural School Course. This course has for its aim the presentation of such work as can be accomplisht in rural schools; crocheting, knitting, hand and machine sewing, darning and mending, and the planning, cutting, fitting, and finishing of simple garments, including a linen or gingham dress. Spring term.

Course 31. Garment Making. This course deals with the fundamental principles of construction. It gives practis in fundamental stitches, in hand sewing, in the use of the sewing machine, in the drafting of patterns, in the use of commercial patterns, and in the planning, cutting, fitting, and finishing of simple garments. This course includes a study of the hygiene and economics of clothing and of related textil problems. Text: Clothing for Women, Baldt. Major. Fall term and first summer term.

Course 32. Advanst Garment-Making. This course is a continuation of Course 31 and involve more difficult projects. It includes also additional work in hand sewing, darning, mending, crocheting, knitting, embroidery, and extended study of laces and ornamental stitches. Prerequisit: Course 31 or its equivalent. Winter term and first summer term.

Course 33. Dressmaking. This course give practis in drafting and modeling of patterns, in the use of commercial patterns, in the cutting, fitting, and finishing of a shirt waist, a tailord cotton skirt, and a somewhat elaborate linen or cotton dress. Prerequisit: Courses 31 and 32 or their equivalent. Spring term and first summer term.

Course 41. Advanst Dressmaking. This course give extended practise in modeling and draping. It includes the making of a tailord woolen skirt and a crépe or chiffon waist and a silk gown, with special stress upon the proper handling and finishing of these different materials. Prerequisit: Course 33. Winter term and second summer term.

Course 42. Millinery. This course includes the simple processes in millinery, making and trimming, renovating and remodeling hats and a study of the material used. Winter term and first summer term.

Course 43. Textils. A study of fabrics from the standpoint of the consumer. It includes the study of fibers, yarn structures, weaves, dyes, and finishing, and of simple physical and chemical tests for the identification of mixtures and adulterations—the work to form the basis for the selection of clothing and house furnishing. Text: Woolman and McGowan. Winter term.

Course 44. The Theory of Household Art. This course brings together the subject matter in construction stitches, textils, design, and economics, and organizes it as the basis for the selection of suitable problems to present to classes in elementary and high schools. It also considers questions of equipment and costs. Prerequisit: Two courses in Education, three courses in Household Art. A half-credit in the fall term and in the summer terms.

HOUSEHOLD SCIENCE

Courses 31, 32, and 33 in Household Science ar open to regular students who wish to take up the work as an electiv without pursuing all the correlated studies. Classes in Household Science ar limited to eighteen members.

A fee of three dollars per term is charged to cover the cost of materials consumed by the student.

Course 21. Household Science for Country Teachers. This is a special course of 120 hours in the study of food, marketing, cooking, and serving, adapted to the needs of the country home. Winter term.

Course 31. Food Principles and Cookery. A course of cookery based on a study of food principles, designd to acquaint the student with all the fundamental processes of cookery and the most attractiv methods of serving. Daily, two periods each day. Text: Food Products by Henry C. Sherman. Fall and summer terms.

Course 32. Advanst Cookery and Meal Planning. The second course in cookery extends the work of Course 31. More detaild study of underlying principles is given, and more elaborate dishes ar prepared. Much time is also given to the selection and preparation of dishes suitable for the brekfast, lunch, or supper, and dinner, and to the planning of the daily meals of families of various types, with correct methods of servis Prerequisit: Course 31 or its equivalent. Winter term and first summer term.

Course 33. Household Management. This course deals with the theory of the management of household operations, income and business of the household, family or group relations, and community relations. Under household operations ar considerd care and cleaning of the house and furnishings, heating, lighting, and ventilation, selection and arrangement of working equipment, labor-saving devices, scheduling and dispatching of duties, marketing, and laundry work. Under income and business management ar considerd budgets, personal and household accounts, and details of banking. Prerequisit: Course 32 or its equivalent.

- Course 41. Cookery IV. Institutional Cookery, Preservation of Food. The first part of this course is devoted to the canning and preserving of fruits and vegetables and the making of jellies. The institutional work carries out the planning of menus, serving of meals and the handling of large quantities of material. Prerequisit: Courses 31, 32, 33. Fali term.
- Course 42. Cookery V includes the care and feeding of infants and children, invalid cookery, and home nursing. Prerequisits: Courses 31, 32, 33. Text: The Home Nurse's Handbook of Practical Nursing by Charlotte A. Aikens. Winter term.
- Course 43. Dietetics and Nutrition. A study of the nutritiv value digestibility and cost of food; the balanst ration, combinations of food suitable for workers, old persons, children and invalids, and economical dietaries. Prerequisit: Courses 31, 32, 33, Chemistry 41, and Physiology 41. Texts: A Laboratory Hand-book of Dietetics by Mary Swartz Rose, Chemistry of Food and Nutrition by Henry C. Sherman. Spring term.
- Course 44. Organization of Household Science. A study of the meaning and history of the household science movement, equipments. courses, and methods of study, and presentation. Federal and state laws dealing with this subject. Prerequisits: Courses 31, 32, 33. Half-credit in fall and summer terms.
- Course 45. Supervised Household Management. Lectures on the various activities of the institutional home and practical experience ar correlated in this course. Much of the practical work is done in Fell Hall. The course includes forty hours in the care and feeding of infants in the Normal Baby Fold and an equal period in the study of practical nursing at the Brokaw Hospital. This is a thoroly practical course to meet the requirements of the Smith-Hughes Act. Prerequisits: Courses 31, 32, 33, 41, 42. Spring term.
- Course 45. Experimental Cookery, and Demonstrations. In this course, cookery, dishes and menus suitable for formal and elaborate functions such as teas, dinners, and receptions ar prepared. Special attention is given to first-course dishes, meats, fish, entrées, salads, desserts, cakes, and ornamental frostings. Students ar given opportunity to study special problems in food preparation. The work in demonstrations includes an analysis of the principles of teaching groups of people by such a method, and opportunity for actual experience in demonstrations of various types. Prerequisits: Courses 31, 32, 33, 41, 42. Spring term.
- Course 47. The Administration of Vocational Home Economics. This course aims to present a general survey of the organization of Home Economics for Vocational homemaking. It deals with the subject-matter, the concrete materials, and the first-hand experience which should form the basis of the work in the Smith-Hughes schools. Summer terms. Prerequisits: Household Art 31. 32, 33, 41, 43, 44, Domestic Science 31, 32 33, 41, 42, 44.

The two-year program in agriculture is designd for students who wish to become teachers of agriculture in township high schools, consolidated schools, village or city schools. In addition to giving the students a thoro course covering the entire field of scientific agriculture, it is well fortified with courses in physical and biological science. These courses form an excellent foundation for the study of scientific agriculture, and equip the student for teaching two or more lines closely allied with each other.

Students may take the two-year program and secure the regular Normal-School Diploma, after which they may either teach or take the remaining two years' work at the University of Illinois. Students ar urged to finish the four-year program before attempting to teach because of the better training and greater possibilities which the graduate from the four-year program obtains.

The Normal University owns and operates an excellent farm of ninety acres, lying close to the campus. The sole purpose of this farm is to demonstrate good farming methods to the students taking the courses in agriculture. Accordingly is it conducted so as to afford a good margin of profit above all expenses.

The farm is primarily a dairy farm, a feature which increases the activities of the farm and adds to the student's possibilities of practis and observation. Pure-bred dairy cattle, swine, and poultry ar grown.

The farm is equipt with a modern house, barns, and other farm bildings, and sufficient modern machinery for a farm of its size.

A five-field rotation is carried on, and a careful and thoro system of farm bookkeeping is followd, recording all data of costs and receipts. These records ar available to students in the course, enabling them to study scientific farming from the business point of view.

Course 21. Agriculture for Country Schools 1. This course is recommended to the students who ar preparing to teach in the country schools and wish to do considerable work in agriculture. It may be taken insted of the nature-study program in country school curriculums. The work will be devoted to the study of beef and dairy cattle, horses, hogs, and sheep. Problems in milk testing, management of herds, management of poultry, and the care and feeding of animals will be taken up. Major credit in curriculum N and O. Text: Essentials of Agriculture, Waters. Winter term

Course 22. Agriculture for Country Schools 2. This course is recommended to those students who expect to teach in country schools. It may be taken in lieu of the nature-study program in the curriculums for country school teachers. The course consists of a study of farm crops with special reference to their economic importance and their relation to the soil. The formation, classification, and management of soils wil also be taken up. Major. Text: Essentials of Agriculture, Waters. Spring term.

Course 31. Farm Animals. A study of the history, character, and form of the horse, cow, pig, and sheep; the market classes and grades of the various animals, their capacity for the production of milk, meat, wool, work, and speed. Some time is given to the identification and scoring of the various types of poultry. Texts: Day's Productiv Swine Husbandry, Gay's Productiv Horse Husbandry, Coffey's Productiv Sheep Husbandry. Fall term.

Course 32. Stock Feeding. A study of the classes of food nutrients and their functions in the animal body. The extent and nature of the demands for food for maintenance, growth, fattening, milk, wool. and work. Choice of feeding stuffs and the compounding of rations. Text: Henry and Morrison's Feeds and Feeding. Winter term.

Course 33. Horticulture. A study of plant propagation, pruning, spraying, cultivation, and of injurious insects. Texts: Bailey's Principles of Fruit Growing and Bailey's Vegetable Gardening. Spring term.

Course 34. Crop Production. This course includes a study of the methods of planting and cultivating the various cereal and forage crops, the treatment for insect, weed, and fungous enemies of the cereals and forage plants, the conservation of the water supply for cereal and forage crops and the curing and marketing of hay. Text: Montgomery's Productiv Farm Crops. Fall term.

Course 35. Soil Physics. A study of the formation and classification of soils; capillary, hygroscopic, and gravitational water; the effects of drainage and color of soils on soil temperature; the granulation and puddling of soils; the preparation of the seed bed and the proper tillage for the various crops. Texts: Lyon and Fippin's Soils, and Mosier and Gustafson's Laboratory Manual for Soil Physics. Winter term.

Course 36. Farm Management. A course in locating fields, lots, and bildings, farm equipment, the distribution and use of farm labor and the keeping of farm accounts. Spring and summer terms. Text: Warren's Farm Management.

Course 37. Dairy Husbandry. A course in the operation of the Babcock test, the testing of herds, management of herds, and the testing of milk, cream, butter, and cheese for butter-fat, acid, bacteria, and adulterants. Texts: Washburn's Productiv Dairying, Eckles' Dairy Cattle and Milk Production. Fall and summer terms.

Course 38. Farm Machinery. A study of the various types of power and field machines for the farm. The major part of the course wil be devoted to the gas engin and its various uses. Winter and summer terms. Text: Davidson and Chase's Farm Machinery and Farm Motors.

Course 39. Animal Breeding. A study of the history of the various breeds of domestic animals, and of the various herd books where the important families of each breed ar traced. The method used by breeders in establishing characteristics desired. The laws of variation, heredity selection, atavism. Text: Davenport's Principles of Breeding. Spring and summer terms.

Course 41. Vegetable and Landscape Gardening. A practical course in the use of hot bed, and cold frame, and in transplanting; in the varieties of kitchen vegetables; in planting, cultivation, harvesting, and preservation. The course deals also with the arrangement and planting of the trees, shrubs, and flowers needed for the proper decoration of home and school grounds, and for the care of these plants during winter and summer. Text: Government and State Bulletins. Spring term.

COMMERCE

In September, 1914, a department of Commercial Branches was establish tto prepare teachers in this fast-growing type of vocational education.

The program is six terms in length, covering two years' time. The following courses ar offerd to those who enrol in the department.

Course 11. Bookkeeping. The productiv development of the principles of double-entry bookkeeping and their practical application in as many sets as the length of the term wil permit. Semi-Major. Text: Budget 101, Commercial and Industrial Bookkeeping, Rowe. Winter and summer terms.

Courses 31, 32, 33. Accounting. Three terms' work in the theory and practis of accounts, beginning with the more simple transcations and records of a small retail business under a single proprietor. This small business is later enlarged to include wholesaling and the ownership is changed to a partnership. Students ar carefully traind in the analytical work of the accountant. In the spring term, the student is introduced to corporation accounting. Cost accounting as applied to the manufacture of a staple product is studied and many problems in factory accounts, offis management, and production factors, ar taken up. Text: Bookkeeping and Accountancy, H. M. Rowe Company. Bennett's Exercises, American Book Co.

Course 34. Accounting. The theory of accounts as developt from the standpoint of the practising accountant. Solution of accountancy problems and principles as applied to business statements, balance sheets, analysis, bankruptcy, the designing of bookkeeping systems, etc. Prerequisit: Course 31. Texts: Elements of Accountancy, Klein. Sherwood's Accounting and Auditing, So. Western Pub. Co. Summer term.

Course 35. Business Organization and Finance. A survey is made of the social and economic history and influences that hav determind present-day methods of business management. The forms of business organization and the methods of promotion and finance ar studied. Offis lay-out and management ar featured. Supplementary readings and reports ar required of each student. Text: Gerstenberg's Principles of Business. Winter term

General principles of banking and bank accounting. Auditing as a function of organization and management. Purposes of an audit, forms and methods in use, and the underlying principles relating to audits from within the business and by outsiders. Some attention is paid to traffic management and foren trade. Text: Gerstenberg's Principles of Business and Montgomery's Principles of Auditing. Spring term.

Course 34. Commercial Law. This is one of the most important of the commercial branches and is very widely taught in the high schools Two terms ar given to the consideration of Commercial Law. The features to which most attention is given ar Contracts, Negotiable Instruments, Sales, Agency, Insurance, Bailments, Partnership, Credits and Loans, Corporations, Real and Personal Property, and Settlement of Estates. The preparation of legal forms is included in the course. Text: Elements of Business Law, Hufcutt. Fall and winter terms.

Course 36. Salesmanship and Advertizing. This course includes the study of the laws of appeal and response as applied to business; the advertizement in its composition, form and effectivness; and the principles of salesmanship (retail, wholesale, manufacturing, and personal). Text: Art of Selling, Sheldon. Fall term.

SHORTHAND

Courses 31, 32, 33. Shorthand (First Year). The development of fonetic writing as conceived by Gregg and workt out in his manual. The Manual is supplemented by work in shorthand penmanship, and in progressiv exercizes intended to increase finger dexterity and a thoro understanding and skilful application of the principles of shorthand. Text. Manual of Shorthand, Gregg.

Courses 34, 35, 36. Shorthand (Second Year). A careful review of the Gregg Manual, followd by progressiv dictation taken from standard dictation texts and covering many types of business correspondence. Teaching methods ar introduced and so far as is possible students ar encouraged to increase their shorthand skil to verbatim speed. The work of the spring term (Course 36) is electiv to the extent that the student has the choice between continuing shorthand thru the spring term of the second year and a teaching assignment in the training school. Texts: Gregg Speed Studies; Eldridge's Shorthand Dictation Exercizes; Regnier's Dictation in Business Literature.

TYPEWRITING

Courses 31, 32, 33. Typewriting (First year). The touch method insisted upon. The work done in the course is based upon the subject-matter containd in a standard text, such as the Fritz-Eldridge Expert Typewriting. Supplementary work begins during the winter term and consists of direct dictation of plain material for speed and accuracy, plain copy at sight, and blindfold dictation. In the spring term, shorthand transcript work is begun. The formal work includes thirty-six lessons in the text as a minimum requirement for one year's credit. Thirty words, net, per minute, is the rate that pupils ar expected to reach at the end of the spring term. Text: Fritz-Eldridge Expert Typewriting.

Courses 34, 35, 36. Typewriting (Second Year). The second year's work begins with a thoro review of fingering, to be followd by that portion of the text not included in the outline for the first year. A portion of the time is devoted to transcript work. Tabulation, rough drafts, and special work in typing makes up the schedule for the winter term. Frequent speed tests as well as examinations for proficiency certificates, ar given. In the spring term special attention is given to Offis Training, Filing, and the use of various types of offis machinery. Students ar expected to reach a speed of sixty words, net, per minute, on plain copy. Text: Expert Typewriting, Fritz-Eldridge; Offis Training for Stenografers, Sorelle.

DEPARTMENT OF RURAL EDUCATION

This Department was organized to meet the need which has arisen from the growing consciousness of the importance of that social unity, The Community. A study of community life has led to a recognition of certain well-defined types of communities such as the industrial, the commercial, the mining, the suburban, and the agricultural. The most influential factor in giving color to a community is its main vocational concern, or how people, in the main, get their living. It is being recognized that the institutions of the community should conform to the type of community life. It is evident that the school should take on the color of the community it servs, hence its teachers should hav training specifically for the type of school they are to teach.

The most common type of community in Illinois is that which has agriculture for its main concern. There ar about nine hundred small towns in the state which hav no industry other than that of serving the farming countryside around them. These little towns and the countryside form nine hundred communities of a distinctiv type and should hav a distinctiv type of school and a distinctly traind teacher. Some of these schools ar ungraded one-room schools, some ar open country consolidated schools, some ar little-town graded schools, some ar graded schools composed of the country and the little town, some ar little-town high schools, some ar township high schools and some ar community high schools. Over three-fourths of the high schools in Illinois ar rural high schools enrolling from a dozen students to a hundred fifty.

This Department aims to prepare teachers for work in communities of this type. The special courses ar classified as follows:

1. A three-year curriculum (O) for eighth-grade graduates. Students who hav had two years of high-school work may complete Curriculum O in two years. The completion of this curriculum counts toward the regular normal-school diploma. The student with the advice of the Dean may select the remaining courses needed for graduation. Upon finishing this curriculum students ar given a special certificate testifying to the accomplishment of this work. This curriculum includes—

Course 21. Country School Curriculum. This course deals with methods of teaching the common school branches as outlined in the State Course of Study. A week, more or less, is devoted to spelling, language, arithmetic and the other school branches. A part of the time is spent in observation of the work in the Training School. Texts: Charter's Teaching the Common Branches; State Course of Study. Fall and first summer terms.

- Course 22. Country-School Management. This course deals with problems of the school grounds, heating, ventilation, care of equipment, the making of study and recitation programs, supervision of play and playgrounds, and mechanized routine. Text: Cutler and Stone's The Rural School, Its Methods and Management. Spring and first summer terms.
- Course 23. Country-School Problems. This course deals with the school district and the community of which the district is a part; with problems of helth, sanitation, recreation, shifting of population, and roads with organizations such as the Farm Bureau, Home Bureau, Grange, Boy Scouts, Camp Fire Girls, Community Clubs, Parent-Teacher Clubs, the consolidated school, etc.; all with a view to giving the student a broad outlook of the life and problems of the open country. Texts: Cubberley's Rural Life and Education, Collateral Readings. Spring and first summer terms.
- 2. A two-year Curriculum (N) for high-school graduates; also adapted to teachers in graded village schools using the State Course of Study and to those looking forward to supervisory work of country schools.

Curriculum N includes-

- Course 31. Country-School Curriculum Observation, and Participation. A careful analysis is made of the State Course of Study. A week, more or less is devoted to each common school subject followd by observation of the teaching of that subject in the Training School. In February and March the students who ar completing their work ar sent out for three weeks to separate country schools, to liv with the teacher, to observ, to assist in the management, care and instruction of the school. Texts: Charter's Teaching the Common Branches, State Course of Study.
- Course 32. Organization of the Ungraded School. This course deals with country school ideals and how to realize them thru organization and management. Text: Cutler and Stone's The Rural School, Its Method and Management. Much collateral reading. Spring and first summer terms.
- Course 33. Rural Hygiene. A course dealing with the hygienic and sanitary problems of country life. Winter term.
- 3. For the graded and high schools of little towns and rural communities. Special courses may be elected in Curriculums K and L and by those taking the Home Economics and Agricultural Curriculums.

The following courses deal with the educational and social problems of the little town and its community and ar intended to be helpful to those who teach in the small-town graded or high school, or the small community high school.

Course 32. Social Problems of the Small Community. (See full description in the Department of The Social Sciences, p. 81.)

Course 39. Rural Education. See page 62.

Course 40. The Village School. See full description on page 62.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION

This Department exists because the state needs as teachers men and women of sound helth who ar traind to care for the physical welfare of their pupils and set before them for imitation the example of a dignified and erect bearing.

Its aims ar threefold:

- 1. For the individual: to supply systematically one essential element in hygienic living, namly, muscular exercizes of a type which wil be of value not only in promoting helth, but also as wholesome recreation; and to encourage as related to this, proper habits of sleep, ventilation, and diet, to correct common postural defects, and develop as accurate muscular control as may be possible in the time available.
- 2. For the teacher: to make clear the relation between helth and efficiency, the hygienic demand for systematic exercize in elementary and high school, and to supply a fairly comprehensiv equipment of practical work for use in such schools.
- 3. For the specialist: to supply adequately in the elementary, and high schools the needed forms of physical activities, and to stimulate interest in helthy and sane living.

Three terms' work in physical training is required of all students, and every effort is made to adapt work to individual needs. This work is to be taken in the first year unless there be excellent reasons for postponing it. A careful record of the helth history of each entering student is taken and a physical examination given. A special class is provided for those thus shown to be unequal to the work provided for the average beginner. In the rare cases where exercize even in this class is not suitable, individual work is prescribed and sufficient observation of class work is assignd to enable the future teacher to conduct simple exercizes in the school-rooms and make intelligent use of games in the school years.

For physical training women ar required to hav a regulation suit, which should be ordered after arrival at a cost of about $6.50. Every woman needs also an athletic skirt for tennis, hockey, and field work in Nature-Study, Geografy, and other sciences. This may be ordered on arrival or made at home. It should be strong, wide, and of convenient length, preferably navy blue or black.

Men require for the gymnasium two black sateen shirts, gray trousers, and black tennis shoes. These can be obtaind after arrival at a cost of not more than $7.00.

WOMEN'S ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

All girls in the school ar eligible for membership in the Girls' Athletic Association. In accordance with the point system a school letter is awarded to activ members who hav earned one hundred and fifty points in certain specified ways. The school letter does not stand for interschool athletics, but for sportmanship, skil, perseverance, and helth. Points may be earned by qualifying in the required Physical Education courses and in any electiv course.

Opportunity is given every student who is physically fit to exercize one hour a day thruous the year. Any of the seasonal sports may be elected. Sport electivs meet twice a week.

Course 33. Gymnastics for Men. Practis: Two periods per week in intermediate gymnastics—free handwork, light apparatus, and heavy apparatus. Pedagogy: Three periods per week. Practis in teaching marching and gymnastics. Place of physical training in education. Leading systems of gymnastics. Methods of teaching. Physiological effects of exercize. Books: Teaching of Elementary School Gymnastics, W. P. Bowen; Manual of Marching, Cornell and Berry; Official Basket Ball Rules; Official Volley Ball Rules; Note Book; extensiv library work. Winter term. Major. Prerequisit: Course 8.

N. B.—Those taking this course wil need to keep open either the seventh period or the eighth period two days per week to use in teaching squads in Course 8.

Course 34. Spring Athletics. Practis: University base ball and track team, or class base ball and track team. Pedagogy: Four periods per week. Base ball rules from standpoint of coaching and officiating. Track base ball rules from standpoint of coaching and officiating. Athletic Administration. Management of athletic meets. Play and playgrounds. Spring term. Major. Prerequisit: Course 9.

COURSES IN LIBRARY METHOD

Course 1. Elementary Reference Work. Ten weekly lessons for all first-year students. The practical part of the work is to be applied by each student to the work that he has on hand for the term. An equivalent course from another educational institution may be substituted for this one, upon application to the librarian. Students who hav had no such course, but hav used a library considerably wil be given the opportunity to carry this work by examination, if they apply promptly. Required of all students.

Course 2. The Formation and Care of School Libraries. Five weekly lectures. Spring term and first summer term. Course illustrated with exhibits of books and library equipment. An hour a week outside of the lectures wil giv full time for examining the exhibits and arranging the note-books. No credit.

Course 3. Library Practis. Several students ar employd each term as library assistants; this affords further instruction and practis in library administration.

Special assistance is offerd to those preparing contest debates, graduation theses, or other important papers.

KINDERGARTEN DEPARTMENT

This department includes a wel-equipt kindergarten in charge of a director and assistant, and a second kindergarten for training at the Soldiers Orphans Home.

It offers to students an opportunity for observation and for practis in the teaching of classes. The kindergarten is primarily a social institution and stands for co-operativ activity. It aims to develop children physically, mentally, and morally, by directing their natural activities in an educational way. Because the kindergarten has proved a potent factor in transforming modern educational theory and practis, there has come about a demand for primary teachers who hav been traind in the principles and methods of the kindergarten.

The Kindergarten-Primary Curriculum, two years in length is offerd to meet this demand. It prepares students to teach either in the kindergarten or the first two grades of the elementary school. Students who take this course should enter at the beginning of the fall term. They must be graduates of an approved high school or hav done equivalent work. All applicants ar required to hav enuf knowledge of music to sing simple melodies with pleasing quality of tone and to play simple rhythms. Students who ar deficient in music may enter this course, provided the deficiency is made up before graduation.

The Kindergarten classes, proper, run thru the year. The courses ar offerd but once during the year and should be taken in the order in which they ar scheduled. No kindergarten courses ar taught during the summer session.

One term of observation and two terms of teaching in the kindergarten ar required. The observation is closely related to the course in Child Study and should be taken in the fall term. Two terms of teaching in the primary grades ar required.

Course 31. Play Material. A study wil be made of the play materials of childhood. Froebelian materials and other selected play materials wil be discust to discover their fitness as mediums of expression, as wel as their educational value. Practical work wil be given in the making of toys, the use of nature materials and other materials which lend themselvs to the various projects of the kindergarten-Primary Curriculum. Text: Experimental Studies in Kindergarten Education. Teachers College Record. Assignd Readings.

Course 32. Plays and Games. In this course a study is made of the play instincts of childhood. Plays and games adapted to the age and interests of children ar considerd, their physical and social values noted and practis given in the playing and directing of games. A classification of plays and games for use in the kindergarten and primary grades is made including ball games, rhythmic plays, dramatic plays and traditional or folk games. Text: Education by Plays and Games, Johnson.

Course 33. Story-Telling. A study of different kinds of stories, their source and educational value. Principles of selection, adaptation and classification ar considerd, and opportunity is given to tell stories to different groups of children. Text: For the Story Teller, Bailey.

Course 34. Child Study. Observation of children, with a study of their instincts, interests and activities forms the basis of this course. The periods of child development and the play activities characteristic of different periods ar studied in their relation to the work of the kindergarten—modern child study literature is used for reference. Text: The Child, Tanner.

Course 36. Kindergarten Principles. This course includes a study of the principles and method of the kindergarten, with a survey of its history and growth. A comparativ study of Froebel and Montessori, and a consideration of the work of some present day educators. Texts: The History of the Kindergarten in American Education, Vandewalker, The Montessori System Examind, Kilpatrick, Froebel's Educational Laws for all Teachers, Hughes. Assignd Readings.

Course 37. The Kindergarten Curriculum. In this course a study is made of the subject matter of the kindergarten, the manual activities, plays, games, language, literature, music and nature study with reference to its organization. The fundamental factors in the making of the kindergarten curriculum ar discust, also the relation of the kindergarten to the first grade. Text: The Normal Child and Primary Education, Gesell. The Kindergarten Curriculum—Bulletin Bureau of Education.

Course 38. Special Kindergarten Course. This course is pland for primary teachers who wish some knowledge of the principles and practis of the kindergarten. It is recommended to teachers who ar training for primary work. All fases of kindergarten work ar discust, with daily observation of groups of children.

COURSES OF STUDY IN THE ELEMENTARY TRAINING SCHOOL

Only a brief statement of the course is given below. A detaild analysis by subjects, years, and terms wil be furnisht on application.

Literature.—Literary selection of recognized merit form the basis of the reading work of the grades. Mother Goose, Fairy Tales, Myths, and Legends, including such wel-known selections as Robinson Crusoe, Hiawatha, and the Jungle Book; and short stories and poems provided in the Readers ar employd in the first three grades. Longer selections of recognized merit form the basis of the work in the upper grades. Tho attention to the tools of interpretation is continued thru the upper grades, more and more stress is put upon interpretation and appreciation.

Reading.—There ar three lessons in reading each day in the first and second grades and only one lesson daily in the other grades. Much attention is given to silent reading in the upper grades and consequently study-recitation exercizes occur frequently.

Writing.—Exercizes in writing occur daily in the lower grades and about three times each week in the upper grades.

Spelling.—Spelling is taught in connection with the other subjects in all grades. Special lessons in spelling ar given daily in the lower grades and on the average of about three days each week in the upper grades.

Language.—Incidental training is given in Language thru the first six grades, and written composition is given twice a week in the seventh and eighth grades.

English Grammar.—Lessons in technical grammar ar taught three days each week in grades seven and eight. The work outlined in the Illinois Course of Study is followd.

Arithmetic.—The Illinois State Course of Study is followd thruout the eight years. The amount of stress given to the several topics is determind by the needs of the pupils.

Geografy.—Daily lessons from the third year thru the seventh ar taught in Geografy. Home Geografy is given in the third year; a study of the world as a whole in the fourth year; America and Europe in the sixth year; Asia, Africa, Australia, and a final study of United States in seventh year.

History.—Life of the American Indians is presented in the third grade. Pioneer history stories, heroes of other times, three great seamen, and other early explorers, ar treated in the fourth grade; permanent settlement and the subsequent history of the United States ar taught in the other grades, including a brief sketch of their European background.

Civil Government.—Civil government is taught in the third term of the eighth year.

Nature Study.—There ar daily lessons on topics related to the garden, the campus, the greenhouse, or on topics involving physical science. During the fall and spring terms, there ar lessons on alternate days in the four upper grades. During the winter terms these grades giv attention to hygiene, sanitation, and physiology.

Elementary Physics.—The work in Nature Study involvs many problems in elementary physics.

Physiology.—During the winter term, there ar daily lessons on hygiene and sanitation in grades five and six and in physiology in grades seven and eight.

Music.—Thruout the entire school year, twenty minutes daily ar given to Music in the several grades.

Art.—Daily exercises in Art occur in all grades thruout the school year.

Manual Training.—Exercizes in Manual Training occur on alternate days thruout the school year in grades five to eight inclusiv.

Sewing.—Sewing exercizes from forty-five to sixty minutes occur on alternate days in grades five to seven inclusiv.

Cocking.—The girls of the eighth grade hav two hours of cooking on alternate days, During the fall and winter terms the work consists of the theory and practis of cooking. During the spring term it consists of preparing the meals for the school cafeteria.

Physical Training.—There ar daily exercizes in gymnastics in all grades in the elementary school.

PRACTIS TEACHING

The Training Department consists of the Elementary School, including a kindergarten and eighth grades, and of the University High School. The school of the Soldiers Orphans Home, with nearly four hundred pupils, is used as a school of observation and practis. Twenty-three teachers devote their entire time to this department; several others assist in the training-school work.

The Training School is designd to giv careful and extensiv training in the art of teaching in all grades and in all the special subjects taught in public schools. Students in the Normal School and Teachers College ar regularly required to teach three terms. In some cases the daily observation and criticism of a class, followd by a written or oral discussion ar taken in lieu of one term of teaching. Students desiring to fit themselvs for any particular grade of school work, or any special branch of study, ar given an opportunity to do so. Teachers of satisfactory training and experience who wish to prepare themselvs for expert work as training teachers ar allowd all the advantages of the Training School.

The work of teaching is carefully supervized by the training teachers. Each student teacher is required to write out the plans of recitation one week in advance. These plans ar closely examind by the training teacher and, where necessary, discust with the student teacher and revized. The instruction itself is also observed by the training teacher, and helpful criticisms ar given in private. Each practising teacher is held fully responsible for the control and management, as well as for the instruction of the class. He is expected to develop skil and power in management and instruction of a class as a whole and at the same time to study and adapt the work to the individual ability and disposition of each pupil. As far as possible during the last two terms of his instruction, the student teacher is given charge of a room; so he is supervizing one class at the same time that he is teaching another.

Each week, two illustrativ or "critique" lessons ar given by experienst teachers. Teachers and observers ar required to observ one of these lessons each week. An hour following the lesson is devoted to its careful discussion under the direction of the supervisor of the Training School. This give each teacher an opportunity each term to see eleven such lessons carefully presented and thoroly discust.

In all observation of the students attention is directed—

- 1. To the teacher's preparation for the work thru mastery of subject-matter, lesson planning and providing external means.
- 2. To the teacher's skil in teaching as shown in skil in assignment, in skil in questioning, in energy, in disciplin, in power of holding attention thru interest, in rediness to meet emergencies, in attention to details of form and position, in ability to discern and meet the needs of individual pupils, in the use of apparatus and other aids, in attention to the physical condition of pupils, in attention to the language of pupils.
- 3. To the teacher's personal fitness as reveald in his attitude towards his pupils and his work, his ability to make use of criticism, his voice, language, manner, and personal care in mechanical work.

Certain students ar also appointed regularly to supervize the children at noon, recesses and during study periods.

The training teachers present illustrativ lessons, at such times as ar convenient, for the benefit of the students who ar preparing for work in the Training School.
